A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Sometimes I hear people say they don't feel connected to our parish. Certainly, as we experience uniting, there are many people who may not yet feel connected.

A sense of belonging is, of course, a two-way street. A parish can offer a warm and inclusive welcome, but if no one responds with generosity and a real desire to make a connection, belonging will be hard to develop. People who declare that they not only feel they belong but that the parish is like their extended family have become involved in the parish community.

St. Mary and Mater Christi have beautiful worship spaces. Belonging is fostered when we celebrate the Mass together. We are nourished by God's word, by Jesus in the Eucharist, and by the community of faith which gathers. Coming to Sunday Mass enhances our belonging and strengthens us to share the Good News.

Beyond our worship there are so many ways we can connect and use our talents to help others join us. What talents has God given you? How will you offer them to help our parish thrive?

There is an African saying, "It takes a village to raise a child." It takes every parishioner to grow a vibrant parish. There are so many ways to live your belonging to St. Paul VI Parish. First and critical, you can pray for our parish and all our people. You can also live your belonging by giving your time. We are in the midst of inviting people to consider serving on the Parish Pastoral Council and the School Board. We are beginning another Alpha at Mater Christi and seeking participants. We will be forming teams for infant Baptism preparation, RCIA and marriage preparation and need people to serve on those teams.

There will be a Welcoming team and we need hospitable members to reach out to newcomers. And we will be looking for members for our Evangelization Animators team which will help all of us to invite others to deepen their relationship with Jesus.

A sense of belonging, whether to a family or an organization or a parish seems to depend on becoming involved. Come to Mass! Volunteer to serve in our parish! Just call the parish office at 708-447-1020 to tell us what you are interested in doing. It takes all of us to make St. Paul VI a vital parish!

Pastor

Religious Education

2021-2022 Religious Education

WHY BE A PART OF OUR PROGRAM?

The goal of our program is to help your child deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ; we are creating disciples! We understand that there is a big difference between knowing about God and knowing God and we strive to create a balance in these two aspects of catechesis. Every child is created by God and in His image and we strive to reach children where they are and help them thrive through a variety of learning styles and activities. All children are called to Christ and we want to answer that call!

St. Paul VI Parish Pastoral Council

In his Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelization in the Modern World, Pope Paul VI wrote, "The Church exists to evangelize." It follows then that St. Paul VI Parish exists to evangelize—to proclaim in word and deed the Good News of Jesus Christ. That vision is the foundation of the new Parish Pastoral Council. It is a broad vision and the PPC will collaborate with our pastor and associate pastor on long term parish strategy and will provide feedback and ensure accountability on milestones.

Members of the three parish councils who offered to be on the Preparation Team for the new council met on June 29th. Mr. Ric Moreno from the Vicariate Office of the Archdiocese presented the role of the new council and the qualities we should look for in new members.

You might get a call! The Prep Team has been charged with identifying and contacting people who have a broad vision and have some specific qualities: faith, understanding of parish, grasp of the mission of the Church, open-minded, good listener, appreciative of different points of view, able to enact a vision for parish life and ministry.

If you have these qualities and would be interested in serving on the Parish Pastoral Council, please contact Carole Eipers at ceipers@stpaulVIparish.org or 708-447-1020. Meanwhile, please pray that we call forth good people and that they will respond yes!

Grief, joy part of the new St. Paul VI Parish Celebration

By Michelle Martin / Staff Writer

When St. Hugh, Mater Christi and St. Mary parishes came together as St. Paul VI Parish on June 27, there were tears and mourning, but also laughter, smiles and hope.

The new St. Paul VI Parish was one of two dozen that were officially created July 1 through the Renew My Church process, which seeks to establish vital parish communities. It will have worship sites with regular Masses at Mater Christi in North Riverside and St. Mary in Riverside.

The Mater Christi site is also the home of the new St. Hugh Faith Formation Center, in the former Mater Christi school building, and the Mother of Mothers outdoor shrine. St. Mary School in Riverside will serve as the school for the new parish, and the new Bishop Timothy J. Lyne Pastoral Center is located near St. Mary church and school.

To bring it all together, the parish celebrated the last Mass at St. Hugh in the morning.

Father Robert Marchwiany, pastor of St. Hugh, said his parishioners are grieving, but most understand the need to unite the parishes and close St. Hugh Church.

"It's been a long several months since the announcement in January," Marchwiany said. "This is a sad moment, but it's necessary."

Marchwiany said he was not sure how many St. Hugh parishioners would stay at St. Paul VI, especially given the instability caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The parish had several deaths, he said, and more families moved away from the Chicago area.

Still, the congregation filled the church and watched as a portrait and a statue of St. Hugh were carried from the sanctuary.

"I was baptized at St. Hugh in April of 1939 and I never left," said Arlene Houda, who carried the statue from the church. Houda was among about 100 people at Mater Christi that afternoon to watch the portrait and statue carried into the new faith formation center at Mater Christi. "I had all my sacraments there, I was married there, I buried my grandparents and my parents and my husband from there."

Three of her four children were married at St. Hugh, Houda said, and some of her fondest memories were watching her three sons serve at the altar together.

Now, she said, she will likely join St. Cletus Parish in La Grange, where her daughter and granddaughters are parishioners, but she plans to stay involved as a special religious education (SPRED) catechist at St. Paul VI.

Elizabeth Kos, who was director of lifelong learning at St. Mary and will head St. Paul VI's formation program, said she's excited to be working in a parish that is putting so many resources into formation. St. Paul VI is the only parish she knows of that has a building completely dedicated to it.

"We're expecting to have classes five days a week," she said. "Children's religious education, family religious education, adult formation, SPRED, baptism and marriage formation. ... It's such a blessing to have so much support for our program."

The formation and religious education leaders have been meeting to plan for the upcoming year, and they are confident that they can work on the logistics so that most families can continue to attend classes the same days, Kos said. What they are focusing on is deciding what they want the faith formation program to be.

"It's really about vision," she said. "We're starting something new, and this is an opportunity we don't want to let pass by. Unfortunately, everybody is being shaken up, but it's because everything is shaken up that we can do new things."

Auxiliary Bishop John Manz, in what was his last official act before he retired July 1 (see page 5), officiated at all three events of what he called "the marathon of St. Paul VI."

At the dedication of the St. Hugh Faith Formation Center, he called on parishes and the archdiocese to offer more support to religious education programs.

"I'll say it, it's one of my complaints that as I've seen many Catholic schools close, I haven't seen more resources going to catechesis," Bishop Manz said. "This kind of catechesis has to involve adults as well as young people. It's a type of immersion in what we believe."

At the dedication of the Bishop Lyne Pastoral Center, Bishop Manz recalled that Bishop Lyne's first assignment as a priest was as an assistant pastor at St. Mary, Riverside, a post he held for 19 years. Bishop Manz became a pastor the year Bishop Lyne was ordained a bishop.

Bishop Lyne, he said, would tell the people of St. Paul VI Parish to have hope, the hope that Bishop Manz has despite the pain of closing and consolidating parishes and knowing that there are probably a rough few years ahead for the archdiocese.

"The intention of the Renew My Church efforts is to inspire more Catholics," he said. "My hope is that we have more Catholics who are dedicated and committed to their faith."

Susan Storcel, originally a parishioner at Mater Christi, participated in the process that brought the three parishes together, and attended the rites intended to unite the new parish.

"I'm grieving with the parishioners from St. Hugh, my new friends," Storcel said. "But I'm very happy and hopeful about this new parish home. I've gotten to know so many people from the other parishes. I think it's going to be great."
