4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

A message from our Pastor

This past weekend, amidst the freezing temperatures, news of more Catholic school closures in our area, and one particularly difficult funeral, I saw a flock of robins. Not one or two robins, but a whole bunch of them! Believe me, I don't think that Spring is right around the corner, but it was a reminder that when things seem most bleak, there is hope for better things to come.

It can be very easy to get mired in the dreary and desolate winters of our lives when they happen; and they do happen to everyone at some point, be it health issues, loss of a job, a broken relationship, or death of a loved one. How do we find the strength to go on and the grace to keep hopeful? Faith that God is always with us, a thankful heart, and a comprehension that we are part of something much bigger than ourselves. Isn't this what Jesus taught us through his life, death, and resurrection?

It can be difficult at times to see where the Holy Spirit is leading. Take for instance the fact that today begins the celebration of Catholic Schools Week throughout the Archdiocese. However, just last week it was announced that two of our neighboring schools, St. Odillo and St. Frances of Rome, will close at the end of this school year. Many of you in our parish understand first-hand the anguish this causes to the children, the school families, the teachers and staff, the parish, and the larger community. No matter what the cause, it is a very difficult time to have to experience.

We are blessed to have St. Mary School as part of our community for close to 100 years. While it may not be just a parish school anymore, as families come from near and far, I do believe that the mission of St. Mary School is an important part of God's plan by bringing people together to learn and grow in Catholic faith and tradition.

We must be continually welcoming and open to new people who come into our faith community, by whatever path they find us. Let us encourage invitation and participation, especially to those who may not be known to us. We do not have to go far to be the face of Christ; sometimes being the friendly face in church is the moment that makes a lifetime of difference.

Next weekend we will have the Blessing of Throats at all the masses. How fortunate to be able to get this special blessing during the season of respiratory illnesses.

Groundhog's Day is this coming Friday. I don't know if Punxsutawney Phil will see his shadow or not, but I do know that those robins are still around and pretty soon it really will be Spring!

A message from our Associate Pastor

King David had a remarkable life with many ups and downs. Philip Kosloski of Al-eteia has more about this saintly king. While he was faithful to God in a variety of ways, he also disobeyed God and committed some very serious sins.

Through it all, King David sought to love God and begged for forgiveness whenever he left the right path.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church highlights King David's life in its section on prayer, pointing to him as a "model":

David is par excellence the king "after God's own heart," the shepherd who prays for his people and prays in their name. His submission to the will of God, his praise, and his repentance, will be a model for the prayer of the people. His prayer, the prayer of God's Anointed, is a faithful adherence to the divine promise and expresses a loving and joyful trust in God, the only King and Lord.

CCC 2579

In many ways King David's example hits close to home, as we all have likely experienced the ups and downs of our own lives.

We try to remain faithful to God, but often stumble and can find it difficult to get back up again.

King David shows to us how we should approach God and what to do when we have disobeyed him.

The Psalms in particular are one of the greatest treasures of King David's life, as he is traditionally credited as the writer. The Catechism refers to them and how they ultimately lead to Jesus Christ:

In the Psalms David, inspired by the Holy Spirit, is the first prophet of Jewish and Christian prayer. The prayer of Christ, the true Messiah and Son of David, will reveal and fulfill the meaning of this prayer.

CCC 2579

When we read the life of King David in the Bible and read his Psalms, may we reflect on our own lives and how we can learn from his example like John Paul I.

John Paul I had a very jovial personality matched with a deep spiritual life. Both of these attributes are on full display in the few writings we have from him. In particular, these attributes can be seen in a compilation of letters he wrote between 1971 and 1975 for the Catholic newspaper Messaggero di S. Antonio. He wrote to a variety of characters, including historical figures, authors and saints.

He even wrote to biblical figures, such as King David, addressing them as if they were alive today.

John Paul I begins the letter extolling King David's piety, while also mentioning the many struggles he had:

The Bible presents the various components of your personality: poet and musician, brilliant officer, a shrewd king, something involved — alas! not always happily — with women and in harem intrigues with the consequent family tragedies; and, nevertheless, a friend of God, thanks to your notable piety, which kept you always aware of your insignificance in the face of God. This last note I find particularly likable.

John Paul I highlights King David's words on pride in the Psalms and how he (as a bishop) struggled with pride:

"Lord, I wish my heart not to pursue thoughts of pride!..." Too little for a bishop! you will say. I know, but the truth is that I have conducted my pride's funeral a hundred times ... and a hundred times I have seen it rise again.

In particular, John Paul I mentions how he tries to view himself as Christ's donkey, to help humble himself: When I am paid a compliment, I must compare myself with the little donkey that carried Christ on Palm Sunday. And I say to myself: If that little creature, hearing the applause of the crowd, had become proud and had begun — jackass that he was — to bow his thanks left and right like a prima donna, how much hilarity he would have aroused! Don't act the same!

Teach me to serve as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to labor and not to seek to rest, to give of myself and not ask for a reward, except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.” - St. Ignatius of Loyola

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO 2024 LEGACY PLANNING

Please Consider a QCD Gift for Our Parish

Jesus told us “whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me.” Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others.

Making a gift from your IRA can benefit you and our parish. An IRA charitable rollover, also known as a qualified charitable distribution (QCD), allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free.

There are three main benefits of giving with a QCD:

- (1) If you are 73 years old or older, the amount you transfer can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution.
- (2) The amount transferred directly to charity does not generate taxable income, which may reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.
- (3) Your gift will be immediately used, allowing you to see the impact of your gift now.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Paul VI Parish, please contact Jane Birmingham at 708-447-1020 or jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org.

COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

This weekend we take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America! Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to Church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity enables our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous in the special collection! To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

¡Este fin de semana realizaremos la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina! Muchas personas en América Latina y el Caribe no tienen acceso a los programas y ministerios de la Iglesia debido a una creciente cultura secular, unos terrenos rurales difíciles y una escasez de ministros. Su generosidad hace posible que nuestros hermanos y hermanas en América Latina y el Caribe participen en la vida de la Iglesia y se acerquen más a Cristo. ¡Por favor, sean generosos en esta colecta especial! Para informarse más sobre cómo sus donativos hacen una diferencia, visiten www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Christ calls his disciples to love God and to love our neighbor. We Catholics can show love for our neighbors by performing corporal works of mercy, which include feeding those who are hungry, giving shelter to those who are homeless, and visiting prisoners.

For more than 50 years, the US bishops' program to aid the Church in Latin America has helped the Church carry out its pastoral mission of mercy among those with both spiritual and material needs across Latin America and the Caribbean.

In Mexico's Diocese of Iztapalapa, much of the population lives below the poverty line and has trouble meeting basic needs. The crime rate is high. Offenders who complete their jail sentences face rejection and isolation and risk reoffending upon their return to society. With grant support from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the diocese created the Cristo Redentor evangelization center, where persons released from prison can receive job search help, group therapy, spiritual direction, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. And they can participate in recreational activities such as theater, games, and music, all at no charge.

In Venezuela, economic hardship and political turmoil have caused food shortages and a migration wave that has left behind vulnerable people, such as seniors. Without adequate resources, the elderly are particularly vulnerable to health problems, malnutrition, and homelessness. The Diocese of Carúpano, with help from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, established a social dining room at its Casa de la Caridad Santa Ana, where it provides nutritious lunches and spiritual and medical care to 100 people every day. The diocese also delivers bags of food and supplies to an additional 80 people every week.

These works of mercy are made possible through the generosity of Catholics in the United States to the Collection for the Church in Latin America.

For more information about the Collection for the Church in Latin America, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

THANK YOU ST. PAUL VI PARISHIONERS FOR YOUR CONTINUED MONTHLY SUPPORT FOR THE GREATER CHICAGO FOOD DEPOSITARY

Five St. Paul VI parishioners joined others in kicking off the new year by volunteering their Saturday afternoon at the GCFD. The group broke down and sorted through thousands of pounds of bread, ensuring it was safe to go out into the community. The good Bread was then boxed into smaller components for transport. A picture for proof is below!

Next date is SATURDAY, MARCH 2, from 1 pm to 345 pm. Anybody over 11 years old can come when accompanied by an adult. Please contact JOHN LEGAN by text or phone at 708-870-0045 or email at bishopse5a@gmail.com.

MIGRANT MINISTRY UPDATE

The Herrera family is adjusting to apartment living in Pilsen. After 3 months of living in a tent at the Police Station and 4 months of living at the shelter, it has taken them a bit of time to adapt to living with just 4 people. Many thanks to all who supported them with donations, moved them into the apartment, facilitated furniture delivery, and took them to the grocery store. Both children are enrolled in school. Andrexis celebrated her 13th birthday and Jeremías (5 y/o) is quite the musician.

Matt Brophy is accompanying them through the TPS (temporary protected status) process. This gives asylum seekers permission to work and receive a social security number. They do qualify but need to go through the steps. Together they attended a Catholic Charities (CC) sponsored information event at St. Edmund and have an appointment on Monday, January 22 with CC Immigration services to complete their documentation. Once they receive their TPS and work permits, they can legally begin to seek employment. This is an expensive process, but the Oak Park Catholic Community will provide the funds.

The recent snow and cold spell were a bit of a shock and amazement for them. Matt bought them a snow shovel and provided a link to YouTube on how to use it! Sounds funny to us, but it is all so new to them. Thanks to so many parishioners who provided warm clothing, coats, and boots as they walked to school. Jose and Andreina are "infinitely grateful" for everything and feel God's blessings.

How can you continue to help? Monetary donations are being accepted to offset the cost of their utilities, cell phones, and groceries. In addition, we need volunteers who speak Spanish to take them grocery shopping each week. A SignUp Genius has been created. Continue to pray for them as they settle into this new place called home.

Question? Please contact Matt Brophy at mbrophy@archchicago.org or Paula Jo Belice at pjbelice@gmail.com.

Blessing of the Throats

February 3 & 4

After each Mass at both Churches

St. Blaise is the patron saint of people with diseases of the throat. Two unlit candles are held next to the person's throat as the priest or deacon recites the prayer of St. Blaise.

"Through the intercession of St. Blaise bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD RETURNS TO SUNDAY MASS

If you are a family with children ages 2-7, please make plans to join us for Children's Liturgy of the Word on Sundays at the 10am Mass at St. Mary or the 11am Mass at Mater Christi. Children will have the opportunity to leave the Mass during the Liturgy of the Word with trained and background-checked teachers and assistants that will help them understand the week's readings and celebrations in a fun and interactive way! Your children will then return to you in the pews after the Prayers of the Faithful. There is no need to sign up in advance, all are welcome! If you are a teen or an adult and would like to help with this ministry, please contact Elizabeth Kos at ebkos@stpaulviparishg.org.

How can I volunteer to serve others? Is there a group at St. Paul VI Parish that helps others outside our parish?

These questions may come to mind when you see and hear of hardships that others in our community and in the world are enduring. The St. Paul VI Service Outreach Committee (SOC) focus is to inspire and lead the parish faith community in ministering to those in poverty, service members in the military, the elderly, community families and the environment. Visit our page on the St. Paul VI website, see what we have done, projects that are ongoing and how you can help.
