A message from our Pastor

About two weeks ago I saw the musical, The Fiddler on the Roof at the Lyric Opera. It truly was one of the best performances I have ever seen in my life. The beautiful music played by a full orchestra, incredible dance numbers and an amazing talented cast, both in stage presence and voice. I have seen this show many times; I actually performed in it while in high school. But this performance has stayed with me because I saw it in a different light, with a new perspective, perhaps because of all the work we are doing with Renew My Church and the talk of evangelization and building a close personal relationship with our Lord.

Fiddler on the Roof is based on “Tevye (or Tevye the Dairyman) and his Daughters,” a series of stories by Sholem Aleichem, written, in Yiddish between 1894 and 1914 about Jewish life in a village in the Pale of Settlement of Imperial Russia at the turn of the 20th century. The story is set in 1905. Tevye, the main character, is not wealthy and has been blessed with five daughters, all of whom need husbands. The world is changing all around them. Russia has begun another program against the Jews and there are rumblings of revolution against the Tsar. The community of family and the village is broken apart as people decide whether to go to America or move to Poland – all in the hope of a better life.

Throughout the play, Tevye keeps a running dialogue with God, his family and his community about the importance of tradition and faith. When confronted with change and new ideas, he questions things in his own life, especially some of the traditions that have shaped him. The one constant is his faith and relationship with God. No matter what happens, good or bad, joy or hardship, Tevye knows that God is part of all of it and is always with him. He is steadfast and he proclaims his belief.

How do we develop this kind of relationship? We learn, we proclaim, and we pray. In today’s readings, we hear about the importance of Scripture, words inspired by God, and that by reading, reflecting and discerning upon these words, we can grow in our relationship with God and others.

Further, we are called to be living witnesses to our faith. St. Paul says in his second letter to Timothy: “proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.”

Finally, prayer, our conversation with God, must be constant. The widow in the parable gets a just decision because she does not give up asking.

Jesus understood how important tradition was for his people. It bound them together. But even more than tradition, Jesus wanted all of us to understand how faith draws and compels us to be in a personal, ongoing, constant relationship with God. This is why Jesus asks: “But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

This week we celebrate two doctor saints. The 18th we celebrate the Feast of St Luke and the 19th St. René Goupil who is among the North American Martyrs. St. René Goupil has a special place for me as he is the patron of my home parish. I also remember using St. René in the homily of my First Mass after I was ordained a priest. Philip Kosloski of Aleteia has more to say about these two physician saints.

Listed as one of the North American Martyrs, St. René Goupil is well-known both for his sanctity and his medical practice.

He was a young man who volunteered to be a lay missionary with the Jesuits in New France. Before his martyrdom he was accepted as a lay brother in the Society of Jesus.

According to an article published on the US National Library of Medicine, “Goupil was a barber-surgeon, and as such, lower in the medical pecking order of the day than surgeons proper or physicians. His major duties would have been bloodletting and dressing wounds.”

Goupil practiced these duties well and proved to be a valuable asset to the Jesuit missionaries.

Goupil, with his surgical expertise in dressing wounds, proved useful at the Hôtel-Dieu. For the Relation of 1640, one of the Hospitalières reported on the case of Lazare Petikouchkaouat, “afflicted with very painful sores” which were “large and deep” and putrified. Lazare, clearly named after the poor man afflicted with sores in Jesus’ parable of Lazarus and Dives (Lk 16:19–31), “particularly loved the young man [presumably Goupil] who offered himself to our hospital to assist the poor patients; but then it must be confessed that this good young man succored him with a charity that cannot be sufficiently praised. He called this patient his consolation.”

Furthermore, St. Isaac Jogues, “asked his Jesuit superior to send Goupil to Huron country with him “because the Hurons had great need of a surgeon.”

Despite his medical skill among the native people, he was ambushed by a local tribe and suffered much torture before he died.

Ever since his death St. René Goupil became a powerful intercessor for surgeons and was even recognized by the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists as their patron.

Tradition has labeled St. Luke the Evangelist as a Greek physician, in addition to being the writer of a Gospel and the Book of Acts. For this reason, St. Luke is frequently called upon by doctors and physicians and those about to undergo surgery.

Surgery can be a frightening endeavor, because we don’t know what will happen or if the procedure will be successful. Whatever happens, God is with us through it all and we are encouraged to call out to him, especially through the intercession of St. Luke.

Here is a common prayer to the patron saint of surgeons, asking that the doctors will be able to “cure the ills of both body and spirit.”

Most charming and saintly Physician, you were animated by the heavenly Spirit of Love. In faithfully detailing of the humanity of Jesus, you also showed His divinity and His genuine compassion for all human beings. Inspire our physicians with your professionalism and with the divine compassion for their patients. Enable them to cure the ills of both body and spirit that afflict so many in our day. Amen.

Vincentian Reflection

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples to pray always without becoming weary, indeed our prayer must always be an expression of our love for God, our family, our world, and especially for the suffering poor.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

Thank you!

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

World Mission Sunday 2022

"You shall be my witnesses." (Acts 1:8)

On October 23, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation through Baptism to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by generously sharing our gifts. The annual World Mission Sunday collection provides critical financial support to missionaries and communities of faith in the most economically disadvantaged regions of the globe through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and the Catholic Near East Welfare Association. Working with limited means, local churches bear witness to the Gospel amid scarcity, conflict and instability. Missionaries address all forms of material and spiritual needs to build up the church, affirm human dignity, alleviate poverty, encourage dialogue and inspire hope.

Overseen by Pope Francis, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith has a 200 year history of solidarity. Today when you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Pope to provide support to:

- 844,000 catechists teaching the faith
- 258,540 Religious Sisters caring for children and families
- 38,140 seminarians preparing for the priesthood
- 26 million children in primary schools
- 12,000 clinics caring for the sick and dying
- 8,750 homes for orphaned children and the elderly

When it seems that so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,100 mission dioceses. If you are able, place a donation to support World Mission Sunday in the collection basket, or you can make a donation online at

Prayer of Generosity

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, To give and not to count the cost, To fight and not to heed the wounds, To labor and not to seek to rest, To give of my self and not ask for a reward, Except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

"Come to me all that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." - Matthew 11:28

Sometimes, victims of domestic abuse think they are responsible for breaking up the marriage. But the abused person is never at fault. United States Catholic Bishops state in their pastoral letter, When I call for help, "We emphasize that no one is expected to stay in an abusive marriage." (Google: When I Call for Help.) The Catholic Church does not want anyone to stay in an abusive relationship. Victims are to be congratulated for their courage if they leave it. The one who breaks up the marriage is the one who perpetrates the abuse.

Find professional assistance by calling the National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-SAFE (7233). Chat with a service provider and find the domestic violence services nearest you. If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

We are called to reverence and love every human person as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us. Evangelium vitae teaches us that "the task of accepting and serving life involves everyone; and this task must be fulfilled above all towards life when it is at its weakest."

Pope John Paul II wrote, "the Gospel of God's love for man, the Gospel of the dignity of the person and the Gospel of life are a single and indivisible Gospel." The Gospel of Jesus is the Gospel of Life, and to love Jesus is to love and serve life. As followers of Christ, may we strive to continually respond to the needs of the poor and vulnerable entrusted to us by God.

MES RESPETEMOS LA VIDA

Se nos llama a respetar y amar a cada ser humano como a nosotros mismos. Constituye nuestra responsabilidad cuidar y proteger la vida humana, en especial la vida de los más vulnerables entre nosotros. Evangelium vitae nos enseña que "el deber de acoger y servir la vida incumbe a todos y ha de manifestarse principalmente con la vida que se encuentra en condiciones de mayor debilidad".

El papa Juan Pablo II escribió: "El Evangelio del amor de Dios al hombre, el Evangelio de la dignidad de la persona y el Evangelio de la vida son un único e indivisible Evangelio." El Evangelio de Jesús es el Evangelio de la Vida, y amar a Jesús es amar y servir la vida. Como seguidores de Cristo, que nos esforcemos por responder continuamente a las necesidades de los pobres y vulnerables que Dios nos ha confiado.
