A message from our Pastor

This weekend marks the end of the Church's calendar year. Next week we begin Advent. They say time flies when you are having fun – we must be having an absolute ball here at St. Paul VI! We certainly are in a much different place than we were two years ago, or even last year at this time, and that is a very good thing! There is an energy and feeling of expectancy when I hear people discussing holiday plans and the upcoming new year. We remember where we have been and what we have been through, and we look forward to the future.

On that note, please take a moment to look at the annual Financial Report for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2022 in this bulletin. In spite of the difficulties presented once again by the coronavirus pandemic, as well as the challenges of being a brand-new parish, we did pretty well. Can we do better? Absolutely!

The foundation of any parish's financial stability is the Sunday offertory. I encourage everyone to kindly review your current weekly gift. Please use the Sunday envelopes that are mailed to your home or sign up for online giving – a convenient and consistent way for you to be generous to the parish. Give it some thought, pray on it, ask the Lord to direct your generosity. With everyone, doing their part, we will be capable of great things.

I want to wish everyone a blessed and happy Thanksgiving! If you are traveling, may your journeys be safe. If you are hosting and preparing the meal, may you feel love and peace as you clean your home and prepare and cook the meal. If you are on KP duty, may you feel joy as you see the abundance of love that was shared on every plate, dish and utensil that you wash and dry.

Let us remember all of those who are hungry, homeless, lonely or suffering.

Let us also remember all those who are on the front lines bringing comfort, aid and the presence of Jesus to those who need it most during these times.

I am so very thankful for all of you and your continued faith, hope and support of this community. Please keep me in your prayers as I keep you in mine.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

UPDATE REGARDING GENERAL DISPENSATION

Next week is the First Sunday of Advent. Cardinal Cupich has lifted the general dispensation from the obligation of attending Sunday Mass as we begin the new church year. The elderly and immuno-compromised have an excusing cause for being present. Let us keep them in our prayers.

We look forward to welcoming you back to celebrate Mass with us!

Fr. Tom and Fr. Matt

A message from our Associate Pastor

Each year on November 21, both Catholic and Orthodox churches celebrate the Presentation of the Virgin Mary in the Temple (also known as The Entry of the Most Holy Theotokos into the Temple). Philip Kosloski of Aleteia has more about the extra Biblical event. While originally this day marked the dedication of a basilica in Jerusalem, it quickly became associated with this extra-biblical event, not found in the New Testament.

The feast is based on an ancient text from the year 145, called The Protoevangelium of James, a text that was revered by the early Christians. In it, we find the Virgin Mary's parents entrusting her to the Jewish Temple at an early age. According to Fr. Alban Butler, this was a custom of some Jewish parents at the time, "Religious parents never fail by devout prayer to consecrate their children to the divine service and love, both before and after their birth. Some amongst the Jews, not content with this general consecration of their children, offered them to God in their infancy, by the hands of the priests in the temple, to be lodged in apartments belonging to the temple, and brought up in attending the priests and Levites in the sacred ministry."

While the historicity of the document has been questioned, the event has always been a day for religious men and women to consecrate themselves to God, in imitation of the Virgin Mary.

Below is the narrative from The Protoevangelium of James that describes exactly what happened when she was entrusted to the care of the Temple.

And the child was two years old, and Joachim said: Let us take her up to the temple of the Lord, that we may pay the vow that we have vowed, lest perchance the Lord send to us, and our offering be not received. And Anna said: Let us wait for the third year, in order that the child may not seek for father or mother. And Joachim said: So let us wait. And the child was three years old, and Joachim said: Invite the daughters of the Hebrews that are undefiled, and let them take each a lamp, and let them stand with the lamps burning, that the child may not turn back, and her heart be captivated from the temple of the Lord. And they did so until they went up into the temple of the Lord. And the priest received her, and kissed her, and blessed her, saying: The Lord has magnified your name in all generations. In you, on the last of the days, the Lord will manifest His redemption to the sons of Israel. And he set her down upon the third step of the altar, and the Lord God sent grace upon her; and she danced with her feet, and all the house of Israel loved her. And her parents went down marvelling, and praising the Lord God, because the child had not turned back. And Mary was in the temple of the Lord as if she were a dove that dwelt there, and she received food from the hand of an angel.

This Thursday we celebrate Thanksgiving. Many are familiar with the famous story of the first Thanksgiving. It centers on the religious Pilgrims fleeing from England and forming a colony at Plymouth, Massachusetts. Once there, a Native American tribe helps them grow food, and in November of 1621, the two groups come together for a harvest celebration.

What you may not have known is that a Catholic Native American was behind it all.

Philip Kosloski has more to say about this gracious event. Before the Mayflower landed, a Native American man named Squanto was first captured by Captain George Weymouth in 1605 as he was exploring the coast of Massachusetts. Squanto was brought back to England and trained to be an interpreter. He then returned to the New World in 1614 with John Smith (think Pocahontas), possibly as a guide. However, Smith left Squanto there and an associate of his (Thomas Hunt) kidnapped him with hopes of selling him and other natives in Spain.

When he arrived in Spain, Squanto escaped the captivity of John Hunt and lived with Franciscan Friars for a few years. He was baptized and eventually left the monastery, hoping to return to his homeland. He reached England in 1619 and was able to board a ship back to Massachusetts and searched for his former tribe, discovering that they all died from smallpox.

Then the Pilgrims came in 1620 and a few months later in 1621 discovered, to their astonishment, a Native American who knew English (enter, Squanto). He came to their rescue and taught them everything: how to grow corn, squash and even where to fish.

Squanto became vital to the survival of the Pilgrim colony and was a valued interpreter. He died two years later and William Bradford, governor of Plymouth, said that he was, "a special instrument sent of God for their good beyond their expectation."

Some historians believe that the Pilgrims would have died before celebrating their first Thanksgiving if it wasn't for Squanto.

Prayer of Generosity

“Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to labor and not to seek to rest, to give of myself and not ask for a reward, except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.” - St. Ignatius of Loyola

Stewardship: Gifts of Time, Talent & Treasure

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

October 20, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In his message for the Sixth World Day of the Poor, the Holy Father calls us to renew our commitment to working to break the cycle of poverty: "Where the poor are concerned, it is not talk that matters; what matters is rolling up our sleeves and putting our faith into practice through a direct involvement, one that cannot be delegated." As followers of Christ, our active concern for those on the margins is not a responsibility that can be delegated. Instead, the individual call to amplify the voices that go unheard is uniquely written on each of our hearts.

For more than fifty years, organizations funded by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development lead the call for all of us to stand in solidarity with those who have been marginalized in their communities and to act against injustice. ChiFresh Kitchen, a worker cooperative owned by formerly incarcerated Chicagoans, is one of many CCHD grant recipients. The purpose of ChiFresh is to create economic security and a thriving work environment for its worker-owners. It also seeks to improve the health of its community by offering individually packed meals to schools, community groups and government agencies.

The Archdiocese of Chicago is proud that CCHD has its roots here in Chicago, led by the efforts of Bishop Michael Dempsey during the years he served as pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish on the West Side. By emphasizing empowerment, participation and solidarity, CCHD continues the initiatives of Bishop Dempsey as it works to support resilient communities during continued adversity and struggle. To learn more about CCHD's impact or to donate online, please visit www.CCHDChicago.org.

Please consider contributing generously to CCHD through the second collection on November 19 and 20. Together, we must continue to sow the seeds of hope amongst those who find themselves on the margins in Chicagoland.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago
