A message from our Pastor

Now that the Halloween decorations are packed away and everyone has had their fill of mini chocolate bars and candy corn, our attention turns to the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. We are all hoping that Covid will not rear its ugly head, like last year, and that we will be able to gather and celebrate freely with our family and friends.

Who are you looking forward to seeing this year? Who will be missing from this year's festivities? Who will accept the invitation to the holiday dinner? Who will decline the invitation and what will be the reason? If you don't see your favorite aunt, uncle, cousin, etc. will you make the effort to reach out during the holidays or afterwards and catch up?

What if we think of Sunday Mass as our family holiday gathering? Now that we have been able to gather and celebrate together, have you noticed that people are missing? Do you know who they are? Do you know where they are? Do you know why they are not celebrating with us anymore?

In a recent study shared by the Archdiocese regarding parishioners returning to Mass after the pandemic, the numbers are about 50% for most parishes; Latino and Polish parishes have a much higher rate. Two of the main reasons given as to why people have not returned to Sunday Mass since the COVID virus shut things down are 1.) fear of being in large crowds and 2.) complacency – people fell out of the habit of going to Mass. People have said to me that it is so nice to watch Sunday Mass on tv in pajamas while enjoying a morning cup of coffee.

Here's the thing – Mass is meant to be celebrated as a physical gathering of disciples. We are called to be spiritually nourished together in the physical presence of Jesus.

Did you ever think to yourself that Sunday, March 8, 2020, might have been the last time to receive the sacrament of holy communion? During those long crazy months while the world was shut down and we were all watching videotaped masses, did the Prayer of Spiritual Communion take on a vastly different meaning for you?

We came to realize how important it is to be physically present together. It is vastly different than being taught remotely or attending a meeting on Zoom. Something is missing when we cannot be together. Jesus knew this over 2000 years ago. Before his time ended here on earth, he specifically showed his disciples how to pray and remember him while gathered together at table.

I am so thankful for all of you who have come back to celebrate Mass. Please invite your family and friends to join you. Encourage those who may be hesitant; accompany those who may not know how to come back.

Remember no matter how long we have been away or for whatever reasons have kept us separated, our God is always waiting and ready for us to come back to him.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory and the faithful are encouraged not only to remember the passing of relatives and friends, but most importantly to pray for the souls of the deceased. Praying for the souls of those who have died is an ancient practice of the Church, one that is based on the Catholic teaching regarding Purgatory. Philip Kosloski of Aleteia has more to say about prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

The Catechism offers a brief explanation regarding this state in the afterlife: “The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect... As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come” (CCC 1031).

“[E]very sin, even venial, entails an unhealthy attachment to creatures, which must be purified either here on earth, or after death in the state called Purgatory” (CCC 1472).

On account of this reality, the Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy explains, “Hence derives the pious custom of suffrage for the souls of the faithful departed, which is an urgent supplication of God to have mercy on the souls of the dead, to purify them by the fire of His charity, and to bring them to His kingdom of light and life. This suffrage is a cultic expression of faith in the communion of saints. Indeed, ‘the Church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honored with great respect the memory of the dead; and “because it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins” (2 Mac 12, 46) she offers her suffrages for them.”

It is a Spiritual Work of Mercy to pray for the souls of the faithful departed, imploring God to purify the souls of the dead “by the fire of His charity” and to bring them at last to their Heavenly Home.

The Church offers numerous ways to pray for the dead. For the purposes of this article, here are five of the most common that the Church recommends, especially in the month of November.

It is a custom in the Church to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for a particular soul, whether they are a deceased relative or friend. The Directory recommends having Masses offered on the “third, seventh, and thirtieth day following their deaths, as well as on their anniversaries.” Contact your local parish to inquire about offering a Mass for someone.

Pope Benedict XVI recommended this practice in Sacramentum Caritatis: “I wish, together with the Synod Fathers, to remind all the faithful of the importance of prayers for the dead, especially the offering of Mass for them, so that, once purified, they can come to the beatific vision of God. A rediscovery of the eschatological dimension inherent in the Eucharist, celebrated and adored, will help sustain us on our journey and comfort us in the hope of glory” (SC, 32).

Composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori, the nine days of prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a more prolonged way to pray for the deceased. Traditionally it is prayed in preparation for All Souls Day or in the days following the celebration.

An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial. Besides benefiting the Holy Souls, visiting a cemetery is a healthy reminder of our own mortality, realizing that we too will pass from this life to the next.

A partial indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, can be obtained when the “Eternal Rest” prayer is prayed with faith. The prayer is as follows:

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

This prayer is used most often during the liturgical functions surrounding a funeral, but is often prayed by families in connection with prayers before and after meals.

One of the most popular prayers for the Souls in Purgatory is that of Saint Gertrude the Great. She received many visions of Our Lord during her lifetime and expressed to Jesus her great desire to pray for the deceased. In return, Jesus taught Saint Gertrude the following prayer. It is piously believed that 1,000 souls are released from purgatory by praying this prayer with the heart.

Eternal Father, I offer You the most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for all sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.
