A message from our Pastor

Two-thousand twenty-two has been a challenging year so far. Covid lingers and the snows have come in abundance. Many of us would be reluctant to respond positively to the Lord's question in today's first reading, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?"

Yet, life goes on and the efforts of St. Paul VI Parish continue. Some meetings have had to be Zoomed, some gatherings, like the St. Paul VI Women's Society February meeting and Alpha and What's Your Story, have been postponed. It is difficult to call people out when ice and cold threaten. But the thaw will come and hopefully, we will be in full gathering mode before long.

As I write this, the Men's Retreat is still planned for February fifth. Hopefully, the intervening snowstorms have not interfered! This retreat marks the first cooperative effort of our two men's groups: the Holy Name Society and the Knights of Columbus. Thanks to the men who planned the retreat, Dave Pokraka, Rich Sima, and Deacon Peter Brown. They have done awesome work to invite and encourage men to attend this time together and it is another step toward unity. Over 20 men signed up thanks to their outreach.

The Retreat Master for the men is Deacon Peter Brown, whom many of you know from our Drive Through Communion service. The theme of the retreat is, "Seeing Jesus in Others." It is not always easy to see Jesus, but if we open our eyes and ears and hearts he is there in every person. We can see Jesus in the guy who mans the snowplow and keeps our streets clear, or in the teens who offer to clear an elderly couple's driveway, or in those who work on and contribute to our outreach programs. We can see Jesus in the children who consider the snow a blessing—whether because of days off or the thrill of sledding down a hill.

We certainly saw Jesus in all those who attended the St. Mary School Open House. There were the current students who became proud tour guides for their families. There were the school staff people and School Board members who guided the tours for families new to the school and led those children to the classrooms in which they would learn. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin once said, "Joy is the infallible sign of the presence of God." The joy in the halls of our school was palpable and certainly, Jesus was present! Congratulations to Mrs. Nolasco, Mrs. Garza, the faculty, staff, and the School Board of St. Mary School.

There are some joyless times these days, as people who are ill or grieving and alone struggle. Then we are called to say to the Lord, "Here I am send me!" We can see Jesus in those who suffer, who live in poverty, whose Winter is compounded by personal pain. Send us, Lord! Whether through email or a Facetime call or a socially distanced visit, help us to bring your comfort and hope to those who long to see you!

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

We live in a time when celebrities are made into idols and influencers sell us the latest trends. But when it comes to true inspiration, no one outshines the saints! Annabelle Moseley from Aletea explores three saints that we celebrate this month.

As Catholics, we are not meant to be overly impressed with the “achievements” of this world. We can and should be wowed by the great cloud of witnesses that surround us and whose intercession we seek so that we can be inspired by their example. The more we read about what they sacrificed and how they loved and the authentic joy they found, we come to realize, if we’re honest: No one is cooler than the saints!

In this month, famous for valentines and hearts full of love, here are three saints of February to admire for the way they persevered in their profound love of God, no matter what. Happy Valentine’s Day!

February 8 — St. Jerome Emiliani

This saint was a prisoner of war near Treviso, Italy, in 1508. Catholic art depicts him carrying the ball and chain with which he was shackled like a prisoner. While chained in a dungeon, he prayed to Mary for her intercession and was able to escape not long afterward. His gratitude for his escape became his charism, as a spirit of thankfulness pervaded all he did from then on.

St. Jerome Emiliani was deeply concerned about the needs of the poor and worked on behalf of abandoned children, acquiring them food and clothing and teaching them the faith. He founded the Clerks Regular of Somascha in 1531, and that group continued his work on behalf of the needy, eventually becoming a religious order. St. Jerome Emiliani died from the plague after caring for those who were suffering from it.

St. Jerome Emiliani exemplified courage, fortitude, and charity. Let us listen to St. Jerome Emiliani’s advice for our lives, in his own words:

“For God ... does not work in those who refuse to place all their confidence and hope in Him alone. But He does impart the fullness of His love upon those who possess a deep faith and hope; for them, He does great things.”

February 10 — St. Scholastica

This saint, whose name means “the learned one,” was born of noble blood in Umbria, Italy. She was the twin sister of St. Benedict, whose famous Rule became synonymous with monasticism.

On St. Benedict’s last meeting with her before her death, she begged him to stay longer (so they could discuss holy things together) and he declined. So, St. Scholastica then prayed for St. Benedict to stay and a storm began that forced her brother to remain in holy conversation with her through the night. (St. Scholastica is the patron saint of storms!)

Shortly afterward, Scholastica died and when she did, St. Benedict had a vision of her soul ascending to heaven in the shape of a dove. He buried her in the tomb that had been waiting for him. The love and holy admiration between these saintly siblings ran deep.

By listening to St. Scholastica, we are encouraged to be unperturbed when someone denies us a favor, but rather to ask God instead; to love chatting about God with other faithful; and to celebrate the joy and peace of the spiritual life. St. Scholastica modeled piety, persistence, and love.

Let us learn from St. Scholastica’s powerful example and apply it to situations we face in our own lives. In her words:

“I asked you for a favor and you would not listen, so I asked God and He did listen.”

February 21 — St. Peter Damian

This saint and Doctor of the Church were known for his love of sacrifice, and he joined a hermitage as a young man. He famously suffered from insomnia and so is a patron saint for those who struggle with getting enough sleep. He was called out of the austerity and peace of the quiet hermitage to return to the busy world as a cardinal.

St. Peter Damian sought clerical reform and sacrificed and prayed greatly for this intention: to reform the church of his time. When he finally received permission to return to his hermitage, the pope continued to seek his help for diplomatic missions. It was on one of these trips that he died in 1072.

Let us listen to St. Peter Damian’s advice for our lives, in his own words:

“Do not despair. Do not be depressed. Do not let your weakness make you impatient. Instead, let the serenity of your spirit shine through your face. Let the joy of your mind burst forth. Let words of thanks break from your lips.”

All three of these saints were people who never gave up on their love for God no matter the obstacles or challenges they faced. Let us follow their example in our own lives. We must ask ourselves, what will we model and exemplify to the world as we persevere, despite obstacles, on our own journey?

May the saints of February enlighten and advise us!

Please Make Your Gift to the 2022
Annual Catholic Appeal

Making all things new... God's promise and our responsibility

Many families in our parish will be receiving the Annual Catholic Appeal mailing from Cardinal Cupich. On behalf of those served by the ministries, parishes and schools who receive funding from the Appeal, we thank you for your gifts. Please return your responses as soon as possible.

The Annual Catholic Appeal offers a wonderful opportunity to answer the call "Making all things new...God's promise and our responsibility." This is especially important as many in our parishes have been affected financially by the pandemic. We encourage giving at all levels to support his initiative.

In addition to providing for ministries and services throughout the archdiocese, the Annual Catholic Appeal funds services in our parish.

When we financially support the work of our parish, our archdiocese and the Catholic Church throughout the world, we experience a feeling of deep gratitude, especially when we contemplate God's many gifts to us personally. By sharing our wealth through gifts to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal, we demonstrate our commitment to the Church and each other.

Meet the Staff

Greetings!! My name is Manuel Tinoco, I am grateful to be part of St. Paul VI/ St. Mary Community and Staff. This is my 6th year working, which has given me the opportunity of being the Maintenance Supervisor. My responsibility is to help the building/ground run smoothly and safely for everyone. Apart from my position, I have the privilege of knowing the staff, teachers, and students. Work feels like my second family because of how great we all get along and assist each other. At the end of the day, I feel accomplished knowing I did my best each day.

I have 2 children, a 7-year-old named Angelina, a toddler named Manuel Jr who loves to explore his surroundings and expecting a baby girl in April with my fiancé. During my spare time I keep myself busy with my family, I enjoy cooking, watching movies, and playing soccer. Family is everything to me, I love being a dad. If I can describe myself in a few words would be loving, friendly, and trustworthy. I am always in a positive mood and enjoy a good laugh.

The conversations are rich and we grow together in faith and in our relationships with each other. Watch the bulletin, our website, and e-blasts for information on our next gathering! Please contact the parish office at 708-447-1020 to make arrangements.

There is a simple outline of choices you may use to personalize the Mass for you and your family. All of these are suggestions; you may choose any sacred music that is familiar or important to you.

Fr. Matt Nemchausky will assist in any musical questions or special requests you have.
