FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

SUNDAY, March 17, 2024

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit." - Jn 12:23-24

A message from our Pastor

Today is the 5th Sunday of Lent; next week is Palm Sunday. Can you believe that our Lenten journey of 2024 is almost over? How have you been doing these past few weeks? Have you been able to find time to nurture your relationship with God? If the answer is “yes”, good for you! Keep up the good work. If you have fallen short, there is still time! When we are in right relationship with God, amazing things happen. When we open our hearts and souls to Him, when we live to do His will and not our own, we change and so can the world around us.

Today, as I am sure most of you are aware, is the feast of St Patrick. Born in Scotland, Patrick was enslaved and taken to Ireland when he was about sixteen years old. After six years of imprisonment, he escaped and returned to Scotland, only to have a dream in which the people of Ireland called out to him, “we beg you, holy youth, to come and walk among us once again.” He did return, and although the details are obscure and the legends are large, he wandered and ministered in Ireland for over thirty years, converting the nation to Christianity.

Consider beginning your days these last weeks of Lent with the beautiful words from the Prayer of St Patrick:

*I arise today through God's strength to pilot me;
God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's eye to look before me,
God's ear to hear me, God's word to speak for me, God's hand to guard me,
God's way to lie before me, God's shield to protect me.*

*Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me,
Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ on my right, Christ on my left,
Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down,
Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks of me,
Christ in the eye that sees me,
Christ in the ear that hears me.*

And let it not be said that the German pastor plays favorites. On Tuesday we celebrate the feast day of St. Joseph, earthly father and protector of Jesus. Second only to his wife Mary, Joseph is one of our most powerful intercessors. We know from the Bible that God spoke to Joseph through dreams. Upon waking, Joseph's heart would know the right decision to make, and he would act accordingly.

Consider closing your evenings with this beautiful Prayer to St Joseph before you go to sleep each night:

Dear St Joseph, as you rest in the Lord, confident of His absolute power and goodness, look upon me. Please take my need into your heart, dream of it and present to your Son. Help me then, good St Joseph, to hear the voice of God, to arise and act with love.

Can you think of a more wonderful way to begin and retire each day one with our Lord?

A message from our Associate Pastor

This Tuesday the 19th we have the Solemnity of St. Joseph. One of the few days of Lent that are set aside for celebration ordinarily just two the Annunciation and St. Joseph. This year because the Annunciation falls on Monday of Holy week the Feast is moved to the 8th Why celebrate during Lent? First, celebrating the feasts reminds us that penance and Lent are not about torturing ourselves. We are not stoics. Penance is not solely about self-denial. We don't even make sacrifices during Lent because the things we are giving up are bad in and of themselves. Rather, we give up good things in honor of better things. Our Lenten sacrifices draw us closer to God precisely because we are choosing the highest good (honoring God) over even the best goods of the world.

Secondly, celebrating the solemnities reminds us that penance and sadness are not the same thing. The feasts allow us to experience joy amid a penitential season. Hence penance and joy are united.

Next, celebrating the solemnities reminds us to look for the saving works of God in our own lives. It offers us a chance to reflect upon the action of God in history. Our hearts should naturally turn to our own personal history. Reflecting on God's universal actions in history teaches us to recognize His actions in our own lives.

Finally, celebrating the solemnities reminds us of the great dignity in store for us. For example, the Feast of St. Joseph demonstrates the honor bestowed on the Saints in heaven. But heaven is our final destination too. Our final triumph and welcome into heaven will be accompanied by great rejoicing. "May we shout for joy at your victory, raise the banners in the name of our God." (Psalm 20: 6) or again "I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance..." (Luke 15:7)

Inspired by that joy Philip Kosloski of Aleteia tells us about the 7 Joys of St. Joseph. A devotion connected to the 7 Sorrows of St. Joseph, the 7 Joys of St. Joseph, reflects upon those happy events in his life that led him to rejoice. The tradition stems from a popular story about two Franciscans who were caught in a storm, as narrated in the 19th-century book Annals of Saint Joseph.

Two Fathers of the Franciscan order were sailing along the coast of Flanders, when a terrible tempest arose, which sank the vessel, with its three hundred passengers. The two Fathers had sufficient presence of mind to seize hold of a plank, upon which they were tossed to and fro upon the waves, for three days and nights. In their danger and affliction, their whole recourse was to St. Joseph, begging his assistance in their sad condition.

St. Joseph appeared to them and helped them all reach a safe harbor. Then the saint, "advised them daily to recite the Our Father and Hail Mary seven times, in memory of his seven dolours or griefs, and of his seven joys, and then disappeared."

Here are the seven joys of St. Joseph, based on various events in the Bible, as recorded in the 19th-century devotional book The Glories of the Catholic Church.

1. "First, the embassy of the angel sent from heaven to console him in these words: 'Joseph, Son of David, fear not to take Mary thy wife, for what is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.' (Matt 1:20.)"
2. "Second, the tidings of great joy brought by an angel to the shepherds, that a Savior was born in the city of David, while a multitude of the heavenly army was praising God, and saying, 'Glory be to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will.' (Luke 2:10, 13, 14.)"
3. "Third, giving the child the name of Jesus, 'which was called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.' (Luke 2:21.)"
4. "Fourth, when he saw the wise men from the east come to pay their homage to the new-born King, 'and falling down they adored Him, and opening their treasures they offered Him gifts, gold, frankincense and myrrh.' (Matt 2:1, 2, 11.)"
5. "Fifth, when he heard in the temple from the lips of holy Simeon, that the child was to be 'the resurrection of many in Israel.' (Luke 2:34.)"
6. "Sixth, in the land of Egypt, when he saw the idols fallen and broken before the infant God, and heard from the angel that 'they were dead that sought the life of the child, and that he might return with safety into the land of Israel.' (Matt 2:20.)"
7. "Seventh, the finding of Christ in the temple, disputing in the midst of the doctors, after sorrowing for Him three days. (Luke 2:46.)"

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION - MARCH 29

Next weekend, a collection will be taken up to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land.

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

EMBODYING THE LOVE OF CHRIST BY CARING FOR ONE ANOTHER

Reflect on your Lenten journey thus far: What have you learned from our global family members in Uganda, El Salvador and Indonesia? How does the Eucharist unite us with our sisters and brothers around the world? Consider how Christ is present in Adolf and Florence, Sandra and Santos, and Evita.

Visit csrricebowl.org to read this week's Story of Hope.

Fifth Sunday of Lent Prayer

The people we encountered through CRS Rice Bowl continue to provide food for their families, help their neighbors, and keep their communities safe during natural disasters. We pray to the Lord ...

For each one of us, we imitate Christ in how he offers himself for us on the Cross and in the Eucharist by generously giving of ourselves to honor and uphold the dignity of our sisters and brothers around the world. We pray to the Lord ...

Please return your filled rice bowls by Sunday, March 24th. You can place them in the Sunday collection basket or drop them off at the parish office at 40 E. Burlington St., Riverside.

2024 LEGACY PLANNING

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

“I trust in the Lord; my soul trusts in his word.” (Psalm 130:5)

Do you have a life insurance policy you no longer need? A gift of life insurance is a powerful and simple way to provide future support for our parish. Here are two ways to give a gift of life insurance to St. Paul VI Parish:

1. Name our parish as a beneficiary of the policy. Simply update your beneficiary designation form with your policy holder and list the primary or contingent beneficiary as: “St. Paul VI Parish, The Catholic Bishop of Chicago, a Corporation Sole”
2. Make an outright gift of an existing policy. You can irrevocably name our parish as owner and beneficiary of a policy with accumulated cash value that you and your family no longer need. You qualify for a federal income tax charitable deduction when you itemize on your taxes. Also, if you continue to pay premiums on the policy, each payment is tax deductible as a charitable gift, if you itemize.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Paul VI Parish, please contact Jane Birmingham at 708-447-1020 or jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org.
