A message from our Pastor

We have reached Palm Sunday, the final Sunday of Lent, and the beginning of Holy Week. Holy Thursday marks the end of Lent and the beginning of the Easter Triduum, from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Holy Saturday Easter Vigil. Although they are three different days, liturgically they are one day, unfolding the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery. This is the most important celebration in the Church's calendar.

On Holy Thursday evening, the reception of the Holy Oils takes place. The Oil of the Sick, the Oil of Catechumens and the Holy Chrism are received by the parish. These oils are used during the new liturgical year for anointing. The evening continues with the Mass of the Lord's Supper and the tradition of the Washing of the Feet. The early Christian Church introduced the custom to imitate the humility and selfless love of Jesus, who washed the feet of the twelve apostles at the Last Supper, the night before his crucifixion. At the conclusion of the Holy Thursday Mass, we do not sing a recessional song; the congregation remains in silent prayer as the Eucharist is placed on a temporary "altar of repose" away from the sanctuary. At this time Adoration begins. In the Roman Missal, it states: "The faithful are invited to continue adoration before the Blessed Sacrament for a suitable length of time during the night, according to circumstance."

The Seven Churches Visitation is a tradition that grew out of this time of prayer and adoration. The Seven Churches Visitation is a powerful way to spend time in adoration, meditating on Christ's sacrifice of love for the salvation of souls in preparation for the joy of Easter. There is something special about visiting churches late into the night. It is not just because of the opportunity to visit other parishes, it's because of intentionally seeking Christ to spend time with Him and contemplating the gift of His love. (We have compiled a list of nearby churches and their Adoration times if you and your family, friends or neighbors would be interested in this beautiful tradition. Please see the insert in our bulletin or visit our website.)

On Good Friday, we commemorate the Lord's Passion. It is a day of fasting and prayer. It is the only day of the year in which Catholic Mass is not celebrated. Instead, Stations of the Cross and Veneration of the Cross services are offered. What is Veneration of the Cross? The faith community that has gathered approaches the cross one by one and offers a gesture of respect to all that it represents. In kneeling before the crucifix, we pay the highest honor to our Lord's cross as the instrument of our salvation. Because the Cross is inseparable from His sacrifice, in reverencing His Cross we, in effect, adore Christ.

Saturday evening brings the Easter Vigil, the night that the Church keeps watch, celebrating the resurrection of Christ in the sacraments. On this night, we welcome those who have chosen to become members of the Catholic faith into the Church. The liturgy begins outside the darkened church with the new fire. This new fire is used to light the Paschal Candle and that candle leads the procession into the dark church. As the light is carried, we hear the words, "The light of Christ." The people respond, "Thanks be to God." Mass ends with the glorious news that Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

If you have never attended Triduum services, please join us. At no other time in the liturgical year does the gift of Jesus' sacrifice come to life in such a powerful and beautiful way.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

Every year Catholics (and many Christians) commemorate the week before Easter Sunday with special traditions and devotions that help them enter into the Passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is a special time of the year, culminating in the biggest feast of the Church's calendar.

However, it can be a bit confusing as each celebration during this "Great Week" has its own focus and liturgical practices.

Philip Kosloski gives us the basics of what to look forward to during the week that precedes Easter Sunday.

Palm Sunday

This day inaugurates Holy Week with the triumphal entrance of Jesus in Jerusalem. In the Gospels Jesus comes to the city riding upon a donkey with the people placing palm branches in front of him. At Mass on this day the congregation relives this event with a procession into the church and a solemn blessing of palm branches. The Passion narrative is also read on this day.

Holy Monday

Usually there are no special liturgies on this day, but in the narrative of Holy Week Jesus visits his friends at Bethany and Mary anoints him with precious oil, preparing him for his burial. Some time during Holy Week, at a Mass called the Chrism Mass, the priests of the diocese gather and the bishop consecrates the sacred oils used in the sacraments of Baptism, Anointing, and Holy Orders. Each parish receives its annual supply of these oils at the Chrism Mass, which in some dioceses is celebrated on the Monday of Holy Week.

Holy Tuesday

The week continues closer to Jesus' Passion and on this day the liturgy focuses on Jesus announcing Judas' betrayal and Peter's denial.

Spy Wednesday

The day before Jesus is betrayed, Judas visits the chief priests of the Temple and promises to give them Jesus in exchange for 30 pieces of silver. This day is traditionally called "Spy Wednesday" in reference to the "spy" or "traitor," Judas. Many parishes and religious communities celebrate a special service of evening prayer known as Tenebrae (from the Latin for growing darkness) on this night, during which Scripture passages on the Passion are read and a candle extinguished after each reading, until the church or chapel is in darkness.

Holy Thursday

Jesus makes his final preparations and celebrates the Last Supper with his apostles. The theme for today is the institution of the Eucharist and the sacrament of the priesthood. It is also called "Maundy Thursday" in reference to the "mandatum," Jesus' commandment to love one another, symbolized by his washing of the feet of the apostles; this gesture is often reenacted by the celebrant. At the conclusion of the Mass, the Eucharist is processed in through the church and placed on a separate altar, called the "altar of repose," for private adoration until midnight in memory of Jesus' agony in the Garden on that night.

Good Friday

Jesus is brought before Pontius Pilate and condemned to death. He takes up his cross and is crucified on Mount Calvary. There is no celebration of Mass on this day, the most sober day in the Church's calendar. A commemoration of Christ's Passion is usually celebrated between 12:00 and 3:00, with the recitation of the Passion narrative, veneration of the cross, and the reception of communion in the form of hosts that were consecrated on Holy Thursday and reserved. A special collection taken up on Good Friday goes to support the Church in the Holy Land. Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence for all Catholics subject to these requirements.

Holy Saturday

This day is a holy day of "waiting," when Jesus is said to have "descended into the dead" to bring the just souls who died before his sacrifice on the cross to the glories of heaven. There is no celebration until the Easter Vigil in the evening, which begins in the dark and ends in the light of Christ's resurrection. It is a beautiful liturgy when those coming into the Catholic faith are baptized and confirmed. The Alleluia and the singing of the Gloria return to the liturgy, and church bells that have been silent through Lent ring joyfully.

Easter Sunday

Christ is risen! The joyous day of Easter is here and the liturgy reflects it with beautiful music, flowers and decorations. There is often a renewal of baptismal promises at this Mass and a sprinkling of holy water upon all those present. Easter Sunday begins the 50-day season of Easter, during which Catholics have a duty to receive communion at least once.

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION MARCH 29, 2024

Today, a collection will be taken up to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land.

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

RICE BOWL - MODERN DAY SIMON OF CYRENE

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How—like Simon of Cyrene—can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world?

Visit crsricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.

Palm Sunday

For our community, that we recognize Christ in the faces of our sisters and brothers who carry heavy crosses caused by hunger, climate change and poverty, and that we help to alleviate these burdens. We pray to the Lord ...

Please return your filled rice bowls today. You can place them in the Sunday collection basket or drop them off at the parish office at 40 E. Burlington St., Riverside.
