A message from our Pastor

As we enter the fourth week of Lent, we are being reminded by nature that change is happening. Spring is in the air; the days are lengthening and getting warmer, trees are starting to bud, and plants are emerging from the ground. It is almost time to put away our winter coats and put winter behind us...but not quite yet. As we Midwesterners know, we aren't quite out of the woods yet, and although it is tempting to think we are in the clear, we all know that it can snow in April.

Just like nature, we are not quite done with the Lenten season. We know that Easter is coming – just three weeks away – but there is still time before the celebration begins. How has your spiritual preparation been these past three weeks? Do you feel a change taking place in your heart, mind and soul?

There is still time to join the Lenten Speaker Series to strengthen your journey. This Tuesday, March 29th we will host our last speaker, Sr. Christine Nantaba, at 7 pm in St. Mary Church. Light refreshments will be served in the Oak Room following her presentation. On Friday April 1, join us at 7 pm for the Stations of the Cross at Mater Christi. We will gather in the Marian Room afterward for some light refreshments and faith sharing.

Thank you to everyone for their wonderful generosity and outpouring of support for the people of Ukraine. Our Ash Wednesday collection totaled $6928. Please pray for an end to this war and especially for all those who have been displaced.

ST. HUGH PROPERTIES FINDS A NEW PROPRIETOR

We announced last week that we finalized the sale of the St Hugh properties to St Nikola Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church, a not-for-profit organization currently based in Brookfield.

Until this sale was completed, St Paul VI parish was responsible for all maintenance and upkeep on the multiple buildings. This included but was not limited to the liability insurance, all utilities, snow removal, garbage and water fees, personnel costs, and more.

The cost for us to maintain these buildings for the eight months prior to the closing totaled approximately $55,350.

In addition to those costs, we are required to cover the general liability insurance for the entire year in the amount of $25,410.

To put this in perspective, maintaining the property for 8 months with no use, cost the parish over $80,000. We were blessed that we were able to find a buyer quickly as without the sale this would have continued to drain our finances.

We had a few other costs associated with closing:

- Required surveys in the amount of $5,250.
- Onetime fee to the Arch for handling the sale in the amount of $17,000.
- Repayment of Arch debt from St Hugh in the amount of $94,052.

The closing costs on the settlement statement totaled an additional $53,132.

This brings our total parish expense for the maintenance and sale of the St Hugh property to a little over $250,000.

With a sale price of $850,000, this leaves the parish approximately $600,000. It is the expectation of the Archdiocese to not use these funds for the day-to-day operation of the parish but to direct these funds to our evangelization efforts as we continue to build our St Paul VI faith community.

We appreciate your patience as we pulled together all the information.

If you have any questions regarding the information above, please feel free to reach out to us.

Your ongoing generosity and support of St Paul VI parish are vital to continuing our efforts to build our faith community together.

With prayers and gratitude,

Rev. Thomas P. May

A message from our Associate Pastor

This past Friday we celebrated the Annunciation. Elizabeth Scalia of Aleteia talks about her experience of the wonderful feast of Our Lady.

Our salvation hinges upon our consent to be saved.

The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

And she conceived by the Holy Spirit ...

The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord is celebrated by the Catholic Church on March 25 — exactly nine months before the Nativity of the Lord, in December.

Why do we bother? Why insistently recall this singular moment — one that many non-Catholic Christians barely consider, except, perhaps, in the run-up to Christmas?

Because this single moment contains within it the first and foremost lesson of Christianity — the one around which every other lesson whirls: Our salvation hinges upon our consent to being saved, and it is a consent that must be given over and over again. Just as God's own intention — his Word of assent — was necessary for the creation and sustained expansion of the universe, so was Mary's "yes" necessary to its salvation.

God said, "Let there be ...," and from that was brought forth light. At the Annunciation, it is the created creature who says the Word. "Yes," Mary said, "let it be ...," and from that was brought forth the light of the world.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord: Be it done unto me according to thy word.

"Yes." "Let it be." These are the words that permit life rather than refuse it. Creation and sustenance are born of positive assent, affirmation.

"God created us without us, but he will not save us without us," wrote Augustine in one of his sermons, and the Annunciation demonstrates it.

While today we remember the Annunciation in a special way, the Church puts this great truth and ever-instructive mystery before us constantly by recommending the daily recitation of the Angelus, whose words continually bring us back to the beginning, that first lesson, for our continued instruction — the reminder that our every yes keeps us on a God-directed path. And then it does something else. It plops us right into a mystery that is imponderable and yet ever pleasant to dwell upon:

And the Word was made Flesh: And dwelt among us.

To remember the incarnation, every day, is to also remember the Passion and death of Christ Jesus, every day, which is also to remember that there is nothing we suffer in life that God himself did not consent to suffer, as well, out of sheer love for us, in his "mad eros of the cross." It is, finally, to remember that this love, this consent, this yes, has conquered all, which means we are — with every surrender, every yes of our own — made continually free, in Christ.

How grateful I am that our Church encourages the daily refreshment that is found in recalling the Annunciation because in that brief pause of prayerful remembrance, there is an invitation to continual immersion in transcendent light and life. To rise of a morning with the words of the Angelus on our lips, "The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary ..." and then to repeat them at noon, and at six, and again upon retiring, or to use those words while announcing the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary, is to be continually drawn back to what is real, and true, and salvific; our perspective is trained toward Christ, and heaven, and the long view of things.

One antiphon in the Office of Readings urges us, "Surrender to God, and he will do everything for you." Each time I encounter it I am shocked because it seems such a bold statement, and also a bit too easy, doesn't it? Like something a salesman, or a politician, might say: vote for me, and I will do everything for you.

Except, then I remember that in God's case, it is true; the more we surrender to God's purposes, give up our own will, the more we assist in the propulsion of his will in our lives, which is really all about cooperating with his purposes for the good of the whole world.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord: Be it done unto me according to thy word ...

And the Word was made Flesh, and dwelt among us ...

From that, all else follows. That is why, even when it is sometimes difficult — as when I must refrain from Holy Communion because I am unfit to receive — I consent to obedience and could never be anything but a Catholic.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Fr. Matt Nemchausky, Associate Pastor

Lenten Events

2022 Lenten Mission Speaker Series - Come Home for Lent!

Rejuvenating a Close Encounter with Jesus During This Year's Lenten Season! During the season of Lent, Jesus calls us to come back to him with all our hearts saying: "Rend your hearts, not your garments and return to the Lord, your God, for he is gracious and merciful." (Joel 2:13). Together we will invoke the power of the Holy Spirit to guide us in this unique way Jesus calls each one of us to get closer to him, to walk with him, suffer with him to new life on Easter!

Sr. Christine Nantaba, IHMR, is a member of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Reparatrix (I.H.M.R.) based in Uganda. She serves as the Religious Education Administrator at Mary, Mother of Divine Grace Parish in Westchester. She was sent to the US in 1991 and taught in Catholic Schools in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis for 18 years. Sister Christine came to the Archdiocese of Chicago in 2016 and worked as the Pastoral Care Coordinator for Catholic Charities at Holy Family Villa for 2 years. In 2018, she was assigned to Divine Providence Parish and worked to unite their RE Program with Divine Infant Parish in 2019.

Thank you to the St. Paul VI Pastoral Council for sponsoring this event.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

We invite you to join us after Stations of the Cross on the following dates for light refreshments and an opportunity to socialize in the Marian Room (lower level).

Each Friday the refreshments will be themed after a Saint whose feast day is near the date of the Stations.

Friday, April 1 celebrating the Feast of St. Hugh of Grenoble.

MASS BAGS FOR CHILDREN AT MATER CHRISTI CHURCH

Attention families with younger children, Mass bags are back! With COVID-19 restrictions easing, we are able to bring back the Mass bags. If you are unfamiliar with Mass bags, each bag contains a few faith-based books geared toward our youngest Mass attendees. The bags allow our toddlers and young children to engage with something pertaining to our faith during Mass. There are six Mass bags available at the Mater Christi worship site (and soon to be coming to St. Mary's) for use during Mass. Why not take a look? If interested, please see an usher before Mass and ask for a bag. We kindly ask that you return the bag to the usher after Mass. The offerings of books in the Mass bags do rotate throughout the year and currently offer something for Easter. The Mass bags are sponsored by the Holy Name Society who works with Faith Formation to create the bag contents.

We will be collecting socks thru April 1st at the parish office, St. Mary Church, and Mater Christi Church.

You can help by donating new socks in any sizes and colors (most needed are children, and infants).

FUNERAL PLANNING & ARRANGEMENTS

St. Paul VI Parish will assist you in preparing and customizing the Funeral Mass for your loved one. We are here to be of service to you during your time of sorrow.

Please contact the parish office at 708-447-1020 to make arrangements.

There is a simple outline of choices you may use to personalize the Mass for you and your family. All of these are suggestions; you may choose any sacred music that is familiar or important to you.

Fr. Matt Nemchausky will assist in any musical questions or special requests you have.

For a complete list of the Outline of Funeral Mass, please visit <https://www.stpaulviparish.org/funerals.html>

COUNSELING SERVICES

St. Paul VI offers counseling services to our parishioners. All issues are treated with respect and confidentiality. Appointments are set at your convenience and are held at the Pastoral Center or other suitable location.

Clients are served on a sliding scale and whenever possible insurance reimbursement will be encouraged and supported.
