A message from our Pastor

Happy Easter! May you and your loved ones have a glorious day celebrating and sharing the Good News! He is risen! Alleluia!

And this is where our journey begins. Do you believe that Jesus died for our sins, was buried, conquered death and rose from the grave? If the answer is YES, then share this incredible amazing fact with everyone you know and meet! Today is not about the Easter Bunny or colored eggs or chocolate; today is about humanity's salvation! This news is not meant to be kept in hiding. As disciples we are mandated by Jesus himself to share this Good News and make disciples of all nations.

Jesus is the Living Water, the Giver of Life. Here is a poem that beautifully captures the message of receiving and sharing the Good News.

THERE ARE TWO SEAS IN PALESTINE BY BRUCE BARTON

There are two seas in Palestine.

One is fresh, and fish are in it. Splashes of green adorn its banks. Trees spread their branches over it and stretch out their thirsty roots to sip of its healing waters.

The River Jordan makes this sea with sparkling water from the hills. So it laughs in the sunshine. And men build their houses near to it, and birds their nests; and every kind of life is happier because it is there.

The River Jordan flows on out into another sea.

Here there is no splash of fish, no fluttering leaf, no song of birds, no children's laughter. Travelers choose another route, unless on urgent business. The air hangs heavy above its water, and neither man nor beast nor fowl will drink.

What makes this mighty difference in these neighbor seas?

Not the River Jordan. It empties the same good water into both.

Not the soil in which they lie; not in the country round about.

This is the difference.

The Sea of Galilee receives but does not keep the Jordan. For every drop that flows into it another drop flows out. The giving and receiving go on in equal measure.

The other sea is shrewder, hoarding its income jealously. It will not be tempted into any generous impulse. Every drop it gets, it keeps.

The Sea of Galilee gives and lives. This other sea gives nothing. It is named Dead.

There are two seas in Palestine.

There are two kinds of people in this world.

What kind are we?

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

Happy Easter! As an Easter reflection Fr. Robert McTeigue S.J from Aleteia explains how to make Easter a way of life. “Father, when does Easter end?” I am often asked that question about this time of year. I suspect that what folks really mean is, “When does the Easter Season end?” I suppose it would be fair to say that Easter Sunday lasts as long as any other Sunday, and that the Easter Season lasts a span of a few weeks. That would be accurate—but misleading. Easter is a fact that spans across the centuries and gives meaning to past, present and future; the Easter Season is a daily fact that reaches into eternity. I learned those truths at the parish I belonged to before I became a Jesuit.

From 1984-1990, I was a member of Holy Comforter-Saint Cyprian parish in Washington, DC—a predominantly African-American parish. When I was a member of the parish, the 10 a.m. Mass ran very long, but no one seemed to notice. There was lots of singing, there were lots of hands raised up high (and the hands tended to have a missal in one and a rosary in the other), and the preaching was superior. Parishioners demanded a lot from their homilists and the homilists delivered. In fact, if a homily ran under 30 minutes, people complained about being cheated of the spiritual nourishment they needed.

There was one more distinctive feature about the parish at that time. At the end of the homily, Father would have an altar call. Anyone who wanted to become Catholic, or return to Catholic practice was invited to come forward. Any who came forward were immediately grabbed by the Director of Religious Education and a member of the RCIA team. This happened every Sunday. And every Sunday, parishioners were urged to bring friends into the Church. The result? Each year, at the Easter Vigil, there were dozens of baptisms and many folks were received into full communion with the Church. On Easter Sunday morning, the parish was radiant with joy and thanksgiving.

I marveled at it all. This was a parish that saw evangelization as everybody’s job. Parishioners took it for granted that they would be expected to invite and pray people into the Church. The concrete living of the parish (rather than just vague, unmeasurable aspirations of a parish “mission statement”) was clearly focused on bringing people home to the life of the Church founded by Christ. This parish lived for and from Easter. Throughout the year, the daily life and worship of the parish had Easter Vigil/Easter Sunday as its goal. The efforts were fruitful and the celebration was a hint of Heaven. On Easter Monday, the clock was re-set, and everybody got back to the work of evangelization again. What made the parishioners distinctive in my experience was their evident conviction that God had done something very important for them in the midst of their difficult and painful lives, something so wonderful that they gave their best to the worship of God and to inviting others to find what they themselves had found.

I don’t know how often this pattern is replicated in other parishes, but I suspect that it is not very often. From what I’ve heard from many and observed elsewhere, “Easter Sunday” lasts but a day and “Easter Season” lasts just a few weeks and then they are put on the shelf again for a year, behind the Advent wreath and the Christmas decorations. In other words, by Easter Monday morning, save for the Paschal candle in the sanctuary and a few extra “alleluias” during Mass, very many parishioners and parishes return to the mode of “business-as-usual.” Easter Vigil/Easter Sunday might have been simply edifying or even exciting (or, even worse, “nice”) but not really consequential. In other words, for very many, the promise of the Easter Vigil and the glory of Easter Sunday are not the stars they steer by. “Easter” is a holiday (with an emphasis on “day” rather than “holy”) and not an abiding presence, power and project in their lives.

I believe that the example I found all those years ago at Holy Comforter-Saint Cyprian parish is a challenge and an invitation to Catholics today. The parish made clear that treating Easter as just a day that comes and goes is neither inevitable nor desirable and that the Easter Season is not a matter of decorations but rather is a way of life. In other words, for the parishioners, Easter was a constant in their lives that made their lives meaningful and fruitful.

What about the rest of us? My hope is that we can talk as parishioners, pastors, and fellow disciples about how to live Easter as a daily reality, as the measure of our parish life, and as our ultimate goal. Yes indeed—let us rejoice on Easter Sunday. And let our joy be evident not so much by passing feelings and “alleluias” but by our daily commitment to bring people into union with Christ within the life of the Church He founded. Then we can rightly join Saint Augustine and say, “We are an Easter people, and ‘Alleluia!’ is our song!”

Fr. Matt Nemchausky, Associate Pastor

Catholic Leadership Institute Disciple Maker Index Survey Result

In Lent of 2023, each parish in the Archdiocese of Chicago participated in a national survey to assess the strengths and opportunities of each parish. St. Paul VI had 338 parishioners take the survey, which represents more than 25% of our average weekly Mass attendance. This figure is important because it means that the results of the survey are statistically relevant. The goal of this survey is to help inform parish leadership about the current state of their parish as well as the opportunities for growth. In 2028, the Archdiocese will administer the survey again so that parishes can see where they have improved and what work still needs to be done. This page represents an overview of the survey results. The complete results can be viewed using the QR code below. Over the next weeks and months, parish leadership will publish more survey results as well as parish goals for the next few years leading up to the 2028 survey.

Opportunities

The three top things that parish leaders* think the parish needs more of are:

1. More young people involved.
2. More volunteers participating in ministries.
3. More catechesis on Church teaching.

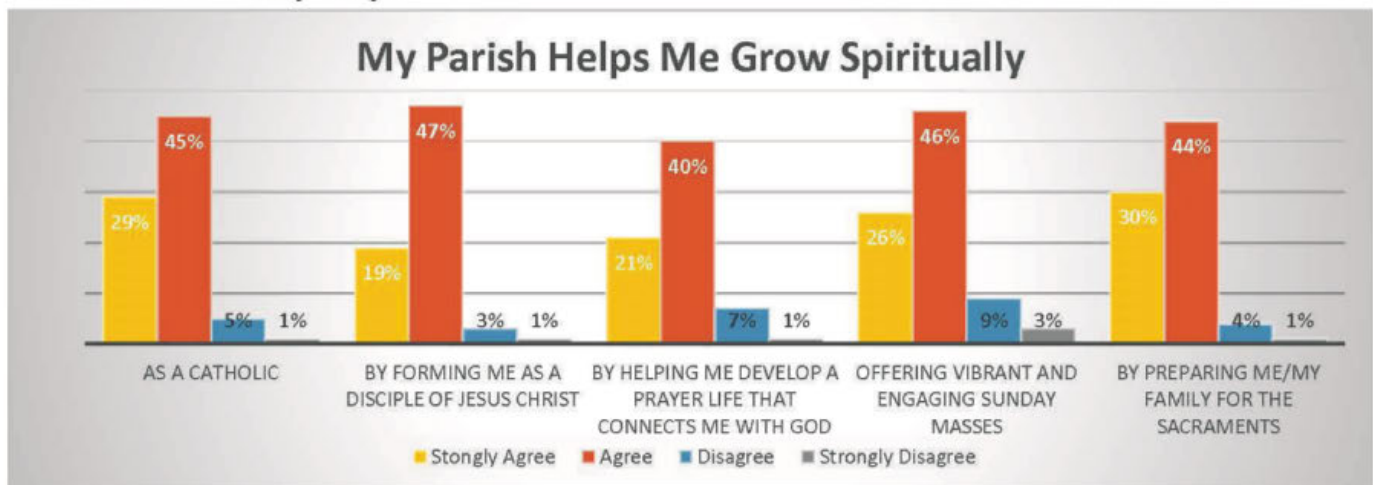

Also highly ranked was more clarity on parish vision, direction, and goals.

*Parish leaders are parishioners who report being heavily involved in the life of the parish.

2023 Financial Report

St. PAUL VI PARISH FINANCIAL REPORT FALL, 2023

Dear St. Paul VI Parish Family:

The Financial Report for FY 2023 follows. We experienced a $154,000 loss in the normal operation of our parish and school. The sale of the Mater Christi Priest Residence and capital collections from parishioners allowed us to offset the loss and fund $214,000 in capital improvements to our facilities. Our aggregate operating results were essentially neutral. We ended FY 2023 with a strong balance sheet with $1,672,000 in financial assets and no debt. We are deeply grateful for your ongoing generosity and support.

We are currently forecasting a loss in 2024. Key issues we are facing include a year-to-date shortfall in Sunday and Holy Day collections and higher than budgeted building maintenance expenses. That said, our full-year financial results will depend heavily on strong Sunday and Holy Day collections through the end of the year, a strong Easter collection and successful St. Mary School fundraising efforts.

Please continue to generously support our parish and consider the following:

St. Mary School continues its mission of offering a superb Catholic education to the children of our faith Community and the surrounding area. Our current K-8 enrollment is 264 children. We expect enrollment to grow to 275 for the 2024-2025 school year, yet we still have room to welcome an additional 75 students as we strive toward full enrollment of 350 K-8 students. If we are able to more closely approximate our capacity, our school will be financially rock solid. The public schools in our area are experiencing increases in enrollment. If you or a family you know is interested in providing your children a high-quality Catholic education with a low teacher to student ratio, excellent instruction and a disciplined, nurturing learning environment, please consider and recommend St. Mary School.

As parishioners, we share a duty of stewardship to maintain and improve our parish and sustain its vital ministries to our faith and local communities. To help us achieve sustainable financial stability, we ask that, if you are able, consider increasing your current level of financial support to our parish. Please sign up for automatic offertory donations by visiting our website www.stpaulviparish.org and clicking on the Donate button or call the parish office at 708-447-1020 for assistance.

We thank Fr. May and Fr. Nemchausky for their spiritual leadership and direction. Our Parish is blessed with many generous, supportive and energized parishioners. With your continued participation and prayers, we are confident that St. Paul VI Parish is moving forward in a positive direction and will faithfully serve the mission of Christ and His Church.

In Christ,

Mike Maloney, chairperson, St. Paul VI Finance Council

John Bork, Nancy DeFauw, Mary Cerrone, Nicki Mendez, St. Paul VI Finance Council members
