A message from our Pastor

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity today, I cannot help but think back to where we were just one year ago. In June of 2021, we were just a few weeks away from our unification - going from three distinct and separate church parishes to one parish with two worship sites and three congregations. Just as the Trinity remains a mystery to the human mind, nobody understood how any of this was going to actually work out, least of all me, yet we made plans and forged ahead!

I have been constantly amazed and thankful this past year for the hard work, patience, and resilience of parish leadership, parish staff, and most of all, you, our parishioners to bring St. Paul VI parish to life. This has been no easy task. I am humbled by the willingness of so many to take the leap of faith and follow where the Holy Spirit has been leading us. I have witnessed the change in mindset that the parish is not a church building, but rather a community in the heart.

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth." Jesus spoke these words at the Last Supper, but don't they still seem just as relevant today with us as his disciples 2000 years later?

There is still much work to be done and growth to happen. We must continue to accompany one another and learn together how to listen to the Holy Spirit and discern God's will for the future of our parish and the Church. I ask you to continue to pray for me, for Fr. Matt, and for our parish community. I look forward to the challenges we are sure to face in the coming year, but even more so to the many blessings I am confident our Lord has in store for us and the parish of St. Paul VI.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

A message from our Associate Pastor

This past Monday, the Monday after Pentecost, we celebrated Mary the Mother of the Church. This title was affirmed by St. Paul VI at the end of the Second Vatican Council. Philip Kosloski of Aleteia has more about this topic.

At the end of the Second Vatican Council, St. Paul VI solemnly proclaimed Mary as Mother of the Church, affirming this ancient title.

While Pope Francis is the pope who instituted the memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church, it was St. Paul VI who affirmed this title at the end of the Second Vatican Council.

This title can be traced back to the 4th century in the writings of St. Ambrose and can be found in various other writings over the years, especially in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

St. Paul VI made it a point to specifically mention this title at the end of the Second Vatican Council, explaining that bishops, priests and laity were asking him to affirm this ancient title.

By rethinking these close relationships with which Mary and the Church are connected, which are so clearly set out in this Constitution of the Council, they lead us to believe that this moment is the most solemn and the most appropriate to fulfill the vow we have mentioned in end of the last Session and which many Fathers have also made their own, asking us with an insistence that during this Council the maternal mission that the Blessed Virgin Mary fulfills in the Christian people be declared in explicit terms. For this reason, it seems necessary to us that in this public session we officially enunciate a title with which the Blessed Virgin Mary is honored, which has been requested by various parts of the Catholic world and is particularly dear and appreciated to us. St. Paul VI then made an official proclamation of this title, affirming its place in the life of the Church.

[W]e proclaim the Most Blessed Mary, Mother of the Church, that is to say of all the people of God, of the faithful as well as of the pastors, who call her the most loving Mother. And we wish that the Mother of God should be still more honored and invoked by the entire Christian people by this sweetest title. He explains how this title affirms that she who is Mother of God, is also our Mother.

It is therefore with a soul full of trust and filial love that we raise our glance to her, despite our unworthiness and weakness. She, who has given us in Jesus the fountainhead of grace, will not fail to succor the Church, now flourishing through the abundance of the gifts of the Holy Spirit and setting herself with new zeal to the fulfillment of its mission of salvation. Mary is our heavenly mother, and this title emphasizes this connection, assuring us that we are not orphans, but sons and daughters of God and the Virgin Mary.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

From Pope Francis' Prayer for Peace

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!
Amen.

Prayer of Generosity

“Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to labor and not to seek to rest, to give of myself and not ask for a reward, except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.” - St. Ignatius of Loyola

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The happy occasion of Father's Day next Sunday, gives me an opportunity to wish all who serve as fathers in our families my heartfelt thanks and congratulations. This day traditionally also gives us an opportunity to thank and support our priests, those who serve as our spiritual fathers, our priests who minister in the Archdiocese of Chicago. These 450 active and 254 retired priests have chosen to dedicate their lives to serving you and your family through pastoral care, celebration of the sacraments, and leadership of our communities of faith.

With this letter I ask you to join me in supporting the health and well-being of our priests by making a generous gift to the Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA collection for the benefit of their healthcare and retirement needs. Your sacrifice on their behalf not only contributes to their health and well-being, but it also demonstrates to them your support of their ministry in our parishes and communities.

Please note that this is the only collection for our Archdiocesan priests' health and retirement. This is separate and distinct from the annual collection for religious order priests, sisters, and brothers.

Join me in making a generous contribution to this weekend's second collection. I also ask you to consider naming the Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA as beneficiary of your will, something I personally have done.

As I ask you to join me in praying that God continue to bless our dedicated priests, I assure you of my remembrance of you and your families in my prayers and at the Lord's Table.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Did you know that there are more than 4,700 students currently on the waitlist for a tax credit scholarship? These students are waiting for a chance to attend a local Catholic school. Your donation to a tax credit scholarship can help us clear the waitlist and offer more children access to a life-changing Catholic school education. In addition, your donation is eligible for a tax credit of up to 75 percent on your Illinois state income taxes.

We are here to help with the donation process. Apply for a 2022 tax credit and donate to a Scholarship Granting Organization. We are here to guide you through the process. Please contact us at tcs@archchicago.org or 312.534.2617 to speak with the Tax Credit Scholarship Office at the archdiocese.

Individuals are eligible to contribute through a Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) and the funds can be designated to a Catholic school. More than 10,000 scholarships have been awarded since the program began in 2017. However, many students remain on wait lists hoping that a scholarship will help fund their Catholic school education. No donation is too large or small.

Donation Process

Individuals can reserve tax credits through mytax.illinois.gov by following the steps. Renewal donors do not need to register.

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

Over thirty years ago, Phil & Anne Brokenshire of Mater Christi, organized a group of parishioners to provide and serve soup & sandwiches to a homeless shelter on the west side of Chicago. This mission has continuously operated thru today, with some changes in locations, volunteers, menus, and protocols (Covid-19).

What is constant is the feeding of the hungry.

The first Friday of each month, generous cooks provide 40 dinners to Housing Forward in Oak Park. Volunteers make 5-10 dinners of a menu of their choosing comprised of an entree, a vegetable, and a dessert.

If you are interested in the joyous support of this worthy deed, please contact Kathy Burns at burns.kathleen@comcast.net.

This group is sponsored by the St Paul VI Women's Society.

Many thanks to all of those who have helped provide meals for Fr. Cy Nemecek.

St. Paul VI Parish will assist you in preparing and customizing the Funeral Mass for your loved one. We are here to be of service to you during your time of sorrow.

Please contact the parish office at 708-447-1020 to make arrangements.

There is a simple outline of choices you may use to personalize the Mass for you and your family. All of these are suggestions; you may choose any sacred music that is familiar or important to you.

Fr. Matt Nemchausky will assist in any musical questions or special requests you have.

For a complete list of the Outline of Funeral Mass, please visit <https://www.stpaulviparish.org/funerals.html>

COUNSELING SERVICES

St. Paul VI offers counseling services to our parishioners. All issues are treated with respect and confidentiality. Appointments are set at your convenience and are held at the Pastoral Center or other suitable location.
