A message from our Pastor

It's hard to believe it's already the end of June. Next week, we will celebrate the 4th of July and to me, what feels like the halfway point of summer. It seems as if we barely have room to take a breath after the end of school year activities and then BOOM! It's the 4th of July!

Speaking of the 4th of July – Father Matt and I will be in both the Riverside and North Riverside parades this year. Come and join us! Please feel free to reach out to Jane Birmingham at jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org for more information. It is always so much fun to walk down our beautiful neighborhood streets and see so many friendly faces!

This week Fr. Matt and I will be attending the Priests' Convocation, a three-day event hosted by Cardinal Cupich bringing all the priests of the Archdiocese together. Think of it as a family reunion for priests! We will gather with our colleagues to pray together, share meals, attend meetings, and celebrate to strengthen our vocations as priests. As priests, we rarely have any chance for all of us to be together like this during the year. It will be a very restorative time. Please keep Fr. Matt, and me in your prayers so that we can come back renewed in spirit to kick off the second year of St. Paul VI parish!

This is also the last week of our parish's fiscal year. I trust you all received our year-end appeal and hopefully have made a gift to help the parish reach its annual collection goal. I am truly thankful for all of you who so faithfully and generously support the parish; we would not be here without you.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

DISCIPLESHIP'S COSTS

In today's first reading, God tells the prophet Elijah to prepare Elisha to succeed him. Succeeding Elijah will be no easy task; he has spent his life facing threats from the kings he has confronted about their infidelity to the God of Israel. The psalm illustrates the emotional and spiritual distress that the prophets' steadfast faithfulness to God brought them. Paul's description of the Christian's freedom from the law as opposed to "the desire of the flesh" puts this struggle at the very heart of Christian identity. The reading from Luke's Gospel recounts Jesus' decision to journey toward Jerusalem, where he knows he will meet his earthly fate. Following Jesus—like succeeding Elijah as prophet—will now become more difficult. Unlike his calls to the first disciples, Jesus encounters those who are not ready or are not strong enough to journey with him.

A message from our Associate Pastor

This past Friday we celebrated the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. The Sacred Heart of Jesus is celebrated on the Friday after the octave (eighth day) of the Feast of Corpus Christi. The traditional date of Corpus Christi is the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, which falls one week after Pentecost Sunday. Thus, the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus falls 19 days after Pentecost, which is seven weeks after Easter. On the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart, we contemplate the pierced heart of Christ burning with love for his people, surrounded by a crown of thorns as he continues to suffer for the love of us. The following day (June 25, this year) is the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These two celebrations always come back-to-back, with nothing separating the heart of Jesus from the heart of his mother. Meg Hunter-Kilmer of Aleteia explains the connection between the Sacred and the Immaculate Heart.

Their hearts were united from the moment the divine heart began to beat in his mother's womb, nestled below her virginal heart. They were united in suffering on Calvary, united in exultation on Easter, and united in eternity when God raised his mother's heart into heaven to beat alongside his.

So, when we meditate on the Sacred Heart, pondering the depth of God's love for us, we need to contemplate the Immaculate Heart as well to see the response we're invited to make with our lives.

In images of the Immaculate Heart, Mary's heart is shown outside her body, as she gestures to it. Mary's heart is entirely given over to the Lord, in the love of him and of his people. Her heart burns with love for God, a love that pours out to the billions of children she has been called to mother. When we look at the burning heart of Jesus, we remember that our God is a consuming fire (Heb 12:29), burning away our imperfections in the power of his love that will never be deterred. When we look at Mary's heart, we long to love the Lord with the all-consuming intensity of Our Lady. We seek to look on our brothers and sisters with that love, one that manifests itself not in word or speech but in deed and truth (1 Jn 3:18).

Next, our eyes travel to the crowns that surround the Sacred and Immaculate Hearts. Jesus' is the same thorny crown pressed into his sinless brow, a sign of the pain and mockery he suffered on Calvary and suffers today. This, too, speaks of his love for his people, that he would so gladly suffer indignity and torture to bring home one lost sheep.

Mary's heart, on the other hand, is wreathed in roses, a testimony to her purity. But roses have thorns, witnessing the mortification required of anyone who seeks to imitate her purity. When held up against the backdrop of the crown of thorns, it's easy to see how our small sufferings, when accepted for the love of God, can be transformed into a thing of beauty. The Immaculate Heart, then, invites us to purity, mortification, and joy in our sacrifice.

Finally, Jesus' heart is scarred, sliced open where the soldier's lance pierced him after he died. The Resurrection wasn't a divine do-over, or his wounds would have been healed when he rose. And it wasn't just as a sign to Thomas that he rose with holes; instead, each of us can take hope from his still-wounded body that our wounds can be not just erased but glorified. As Jesus sits at the right hand of the Father, he looks at the holes in his hands, of which Isaiah prophesied, "See, upon the palms of my hands I have written your name" (Is 49:16). Jesus looks at these wounds and rejoices that by them, we have been healed (Is 53:5).

Read more: "God has tattooed my name on his hand!" Pope Francis is blown away by God's mercy. In Mary's heart, there is a sword (or seven), in fulfillment of Simeon's prophecy that a sword would pierce her heart. These swords represent the seven sorrows of Mary, the deep suffering that threatened to destroy her. More than the thorns of small sacrifices, these are the agonizing pains that we struggle under, the loss and loneliness and fear that leave us near despair. But in Mary's heart, these words, too, have been glorified. She doesn't shriek in anguish, deny her suffering, or attempt to pry the swords out; she looks to her Son who suffered far more, and unites her heart to his, offering him her pain. We, too, must acknowledge the deep pain in our lives, pain that sometimes comes directly from our decision to follow Jesus, and offer it to him, trusting that when we embrace our crosses, he can make us saints.

In 1942, Pope Pius XII consecrated the entire world to Jesus through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Many individuals have done the same. As we celebrate her feast day today, let's ask her once again to intercede that our hearts would be made more like hers in imitation of her Son.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

From Pope Francis' Prayer for Peace

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!
Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The annual Peter's Pence Collection provides essential support for the Holy See's activities and help Pope Francis assist the victims of wars, oppression, and natural disaster around the world.

For example, the Pontifical Mission Societies share the Gospel with and minister to people in places that the Church designates as mission lands due to their lack of resources and other challenges. When the COVID-19 pandemic swept across the world, the Holy Father established an emergency fund at PMS to address the needs of places in Latin America, Africa, and Asia where the pandemic posed a grave humanitarian crisis. With an initial contribution of $750,000 from the Holy Father, the Pontifical Mission Societies provided relief to people in South Africa, Pakistan, Colombia, and other countries throughout the Southern Hemisphere.

Your contribution to Peter's Pence helps fund not only the activities of the Roman Curia that assist the pope in the exercise of his ministry but also solidarity projects that aid those most in need – like the outreach described above. To learn more about the ways in which Peter's Pence supports the Holy Father's ministry of mercy, visit <https://www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html> (English) or <https://www.obolodisanpietro.va/es.html> (español).

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's collection as an act of mercy and charity. Join our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis to carry out his ministry to the Universal Church and reach out to the most marginalized in our world.

Thank you and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, To give and not to count the cost, To fight and not to heed the wounds, To labor and not to seek to rest, To give of my self and not ask for a reward, Except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.

A message of gratitude from Bishop Kevin Birmingham to the Vicariate IV Staff

Dear all,

Please accept this brief e-note to thank all who joined us for our Vicariate IV Picnic on Wednesday, June 8. It was great being away from the office for a couple of hours without any agenda; simply enjoying each other's company (and good food!).

Your service and ministry at the parishes are truly a witness to me of your life in Christ and of our collective pastoral care to the People of God entrusted us. Thank you for all you do.

Allow me, once again, to take this opportunity to thank St. Giles staff and volunteers for their work they put into the picnic in hosting us. Among them are: Father Carl Morello, Carol Colman, Kelly McCreary, Gabe Brophy, Nathan Johnson, Larry Wardzala, Marci Madary, Jesus Mancilla and Matt Brophy.

It is my prayer that you are able to participate in some downtime during the summer months to enjoy family and good friends. Be assured of my ongoing prayers for all of you, as I ask that you also pray for me. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Kevin
