A message from our Pastor

What are you going to do this summer? It's an age-old question that holds so much opportunity in the first days of June. And then suddenly before you know it, it's Labor Day and summer is over. Like Ferris Bueller says, "Life moves pretty fast. You don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it."

I plan on stopping in at No Bug Bingo in the Parish Center this Friday. Although I think we are going to have to have a "bug check" at the door. Those critters have really become active it seems this past week and I have found several stowaways in my car and home!

I am looking forward to attending the Priest Convocation June 17-June 20. It is a once a year event where almost all priests of the Archdiocese gather together to pray and talk with one another. There are lectures, shared meals and just time to talk and visit with each other.

On June 23, we will celebrate Fr. Matt's final weekend mass at St. Paul VI and gather afterwards to wish him only the best on his new assignment at St. Stephens in Tinley Park. The reception will be from 12 -3 PM on the Mater Christi campus and I hope you will make time to stop by.

On June 30, my duties as Administrator will end as a new Pastor has been named for Mary, Mother of Divine Grace parish. It has been very nice to get to know our neighboring parish in Westchester, especially the staff, but I am looking forward to not having to split my time between two parishes.

On July 1, Fr. Tim officially begins his first assignment as Associate Pastor of St Paul VI. I have invited him to walk in the 4th of July parades and he will begin celebrating weekend masses on the 6th and 7th of July.

At the end of July, I will be taking a much-anticipated trip to Norway and Sweden. I have never seen this part of Europe and am truly looking forward to it!

On August 17th, the parish will be hosting the annual Archdiocesan Catechetical Conference, a daylong development day for catechists in preparation for the new religious education year. Cardinal Cupich will be here to celebrate mass at Mater Christi Church.

And then the next weekend is the parish Block Party! And just like that, it will be Labor Day!

The days are long with light this time of year and we can pack a lot into each gift of 24 hours that God gives us every day. Let us try to remember to slow down and say "Thank You".

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

On the May 29 memorial of St Paul VI, who Pope Francis called “a pastor burning with love for Christ, for the Church, and for humanity,” the Pope recommended reading his 1975 apostolic exhortation, ‘Evangelii nuntiandi,’ “which is still relevant today,” he said. Kathleen N. Hatstrup of Aleteia has more to say about the Pope’s comments.

This saintly predecessor can help us “rediscover the joy of being Christian, inspiring a renewed commitment to building the civilization of love,” Pope Francis said. As is often the case with an apostolic exhortation, it was written as a summary and response to a recently held synod. Paul VI had gathered the bishops in the autumn of 1974 to consider what the Church understands by “evangelization.”

“Evangelization in the Modern World” as the title is generally rendered in English, was Paul VI’s response. The document is around 60 pages in most publication formats, so it is a quick read.

Here, though, are a few profound excerpts to serve as a reminder or introduction.

CHRIST’S ANNOUNCEMENT

As an evangelizer, Christ first of all proclaims a kingdom, the kingdom of God; and this is so important that, by comparison, everything else becomes “the rest,” which is “given in addition.”

As the kernel and center of His Good News, Christ proclaims salvation, this great gift of God which is liberation from everything that oppresses man but which is above all liberation from sin and the Evil One, in the joy of knowing God and being known by Him, of seeing Him, and of being given over to Him.

The Church is born of the evangelizing activity of Jesus and the Twelve. She is the normal, desired, most immediate and most visible fruit of this activity.

THE CHURCH CONTINUES JESUS’ WORK

We wish to confirm once more that the task of evangelizing all people constitutes the essential mission of the Church.

She [the Church] prolongs and continues Him [Jesus]. And it is above all His mission and His condition of being an evangelizer that she is called upon to continue.

The Church is an evangelizer, but she begins by being evangelized herself. ... she needs to listen unceasingly to what she must believe, to her reasons for hoping, to the new commandment of love. She is the People of God immersed in the world, and often tempted by idols, and she always needs to hear the proclamation of the “mighty works of God” which converted her to the Lord.

EVANGELIZATION AS WITNESS

The split between the Gospel and culture is without a doubt the drama of our time, just as it was of other times.

Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses.

WHAT WITNESS LOOKS LIKE

Take a Christian or a handful of Christians who, in the midst of their own community, show their capacity for understanding and acceptance, their sharing of life and destiny with other people, their solidarity with the efforts of all for whatever is noble and good. Let us suppose that, in addition, they radiate in an altogether simple and unaffected way their faith in values that go beyond current values, and their hope in something that is not seen and that one would not dare to imagine.

WITNESS AND THE WORD

The Good News proclaimed by the witness of life sooner or later has to be proclaimed by the word of life. We are well aware that modern man is sated by talk; he is obviously often tired of listening and, what is worse, impervious to words. [...] The fatigue produced these days by so much empty talk and the relevance of many other forms of communication must not however diminish the permanent power of the word, or cause a loss of confidence in it. The word remains ever relevant, especially when it is the bearer of the power of God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

By Father John Muir

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: "How can Satan cast out Satan?" To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we're honest, our response to some degree is: "How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!" But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here's what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. "I'll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy." "She's already trying to get ahead of me." "That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs." And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind's sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus' cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of "casting out Satan by Satan" and ushers in a new one he calls "the Kingdom of God." He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the "stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house." This week let's notice the ways we "cast out Satan by Satan," and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand. ©LPI

2024 LEGACY PLANNING

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

As stewards of our faith, we can express our gratitude for the bread given to us from heaven and help ensure that God's good work on earth continues by considering a charitable gift annuity. When you establish a charitable gift annuity with the archdiocese, not only will you receive fixed payments for life, but you can designate our parish as the remainder beneficiary.

How It Works:

1. Make a gift of $10,000 or more to the Archdiocese of Chicago. Fund your gift annuity with cash or securities.
2. Receive fixed payments for life – for yourself or a loved one age 60 or older. Payment rates are based upon the age of the annuitant at the time you establish the gift annuity.
3. Enjoy immediate and future tax benefits, including a federal income tax deduction for a portion of your gift, if you itemize. You can schedule payments according to your financial needs, and a portion of each annuity payment will be tax-free (through life expectancy).
4. The funds remaining after your lifetime will support our parish or school – as designated by you.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Paul VI Parish, please contact Jane Birmingham at 708-447-1020 or jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org.

HELP SUPPORT YOUTH MINISTRY!

We are so excited to announce that 21 students and 8 adults will be attending the Appalachian Service Project trip for St. Paul VI Parish from June 23-29! We are headed to Perry County, Kentucky and have four teams of kids ranging from incoming eighth graders to incoming seniors in high school from St. Mary, Hauser, Fenwick, and RB! We have been working hard to learn carpentry and home building skills to prepare for our trip and now, we need your help!

The approximate cost for one participant to attend this trip is $700. Our students have been fundraising all year to help reduce the cost of the trip.

Through the generosity of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society, we are well on our way to meeting our fundraising goal.

We hope that you can help us fund the gap for our 21 student participants, so our goal is to raise $3000 by June 1st! As St. Paul VI works to build our youth ministry program, we hope you will join us in supporting these young Catholics!
