A message from our Pastor

Now that the 4th of July has come and gone, vacation season is in full swing. People are packing up their cars and driving to places all over our beautiful country; others are packing suitcases and flying to destinations around the world. No matter where you go, all vacations take an enormous amount of planning, coordination, and preparation. Cars need to be tuned up for long distance drives or flights booked, accommodations finalized, suitcases packed with all clothing and essentials, care for pets arranged and don't forget the phone chargers! It's a lot of work to go relax!

It's amazing then to listen to the words of today's Gospel detailing how Jesus sends out the Apostles – the Twelve – to preach repentance, heal the sick and drive out demons. They were sent two by two, with nothing more than a walking stick, the sandals on their feet and the clothes on their backs. Nothing else. No food, no sack, no money, not even an extra tunic. They didn't know where they would eat or sleep or even if they would be welcomed by those they encountered, and yet, they went.

Admittedly, we have a lot more “stuff” than the fishermen of Judea, but I am sure that even way back when these directions must have seemed crazy to the Apostles. Mark's gospel writing does not tell us if the Apostles questioned Jesus or talked among themselves whether or not this seemed like a good idea. It just states that “they went off and preached repentance.” They did what Jesus asked them to do.

This is not really a story about material possessions; rather it is about trust and faith. When Jesus called his Apostles, when he chose them to be the students for the most important class ever taught, he asked them to leave what they knew and believed behind and be the followers that he needed to accomplish his work on earth.

The lives of the saints show us that God is still asking us to do this. Think of the stories and the works of St. Damien, Mother Teresa, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, to name just a few. As a follower of Jesus Christ, are you listening for Jesus' instructions of how you can make a difference in the world? Will you do it, even if you have no idea how it will work, just trusting that if God needs your hands, your feet, your voice, your faith in him that it will happen according to his plan?

It's a lot to ponder, but perhaps when you are away from your everyday life and are sitting by a quiet lake, or gazing at a night sky filled with stars, or walking down a very old street in a faraway place you can listen for God's voice and hear what he is asking you to do and where you need to go to do his work. (He might even let you take your cell phone!)

A message from our Associate Pastor

Theology of the Home Part 1: House Blessings

In the gospels Jesus encounters people in a variety of places, but one of his favorite places is in their home. We can think of when the tax collector Zacchaeus climbed the sycamore tree to get a better look at Jesus and Jesus told him to come down so that they can go into his home to eat and talk. Or think of the time when Jesus raised the young daughter of Jairus from the dead in her home. Jesus even met with a Pharisee in his home. Jesus often met with people at great peril to his public reputation in their homes because they were sinners, but it is because they were sinners that meeting them in their home was all the more important.

We often think of Church as the brick and mortar structure that we go to for an hour on Sundays. There are 168 hours in a week, but Jesus doesn't just want your attention for one of those 168 hours. The Church and our Catholic faith can and should take root in every part of our lives and it starts in our homes. For the next few weeks I will be writing my bulletin articles on the theology of the home: how we can sanctify our living spaces and allow the faith to dwell in our daily lives. I firmly believe that our homes are little churches, little seminaries, and little convents where we can live the way, the truth, and the life practically.

According to a study in 2023 the average person spends about 18 hours and 43 minutes at home each day. With the advent of remote working this number may very well go up in the years to come. We spend a significant amount of our time at home. It makes sense that we would want to sanctify our homes as a place where the faith can take root.

One of the ways that we can sanctify our homes is a house blessing. A blessing sanctifies something and sets it aside for a sacred purpose. It can be hard to think of our homes as a sacred place with all the turmoil and busyness of our everyday lives, but this is all the more reason to get your house blessed. Holiness is for every part of our life, even the messy parts.

A house blessing does not take very long, maybe 15 to 20 minutes, but it can help to reshape the way that we think about home and how we live our faith. A house blessing involves prayer, a reading from sacred scripture, intercessions asked for the good of the household, and a blessing of the rooms with holy water. It's a simple thing that can make a big difference in the spirituality of your home and be a catalyst to common holiness. The Second Vatican Council in its constitution Lumen Gentium spoke at length about the universal call to holiness, that all believers in Jesus Christ are called to holiness regardless of their vocation. In the same way our homes can be holy too. Our homes can be touchpoints to a life in Christ.

If you would like your house blessed let's book an appointment for me to come by.

Cor ad cor loquitur,

Fr. Tim, Associate Pastor

2024 LEGACY PLANNING

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Give a Gift that Gives Back:

Take Advantage of Higher Payout Rates!

Charitable gift annuity payout rates have increased – allowing you the opportunity to benefit more from your giving and to help ensure that God’s good work continues. When you establish a charitable gift annuity with the archdiocese, not only will you receive fixed payments for life, but you can designate our parish as the remainder beneficiary.

How It Works:

1. Make a gift of $10,000 or more to the Archdiocese of Chicago. Fund your gift annuity with cash or securities.
2. Receive fixed payments for life – for yourself or a loved one age 60 or older. Payment rates are based upon the age of the annuitant at the time you establish the gift annuity.
3. Enjoy immediate and future tax benefits, including a federal income tax deduction for a portion of your gift, if you itemize. You can schedule payments according to your financial needs, and a portion of each annuity payment will be tax-free (through life expectancy).
4. The funds remaining after your lifetime will support our parish or school – as designated by you.

If you would like more information on how to make a Legacy Planning gift to St. Paul VI Parish, please contact Jane Birmingham at 708-447-1020 or jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org.

St. Paul VI Parish Migrant Ministry

The Herrera family is extremely grateful for all the support and assistance. They are diligent in their quest to become independent. Until then, they need our help. Parishioners have assisted with appointments, writing resumes, connecting them to the community, and weekly grocery shopping. Purchasing household goods in the local stores can be quite pricey. To help offset this cost, we are asking for donations of some of the more frequently used items. A Sign-Up Genius has been created to help offset this expense.

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/904054EAEA62AAFC1-49969687-migrant#/>

In addition, gift cards to Aldi and Jewel are appreciated. Monetary donations are used for their monthly bills, including Ventra passes for the CTA to get to job interviews and appointments.

Please use the link below or the QR code to make a donation.

PLEASE HELP US HELP OTHERS!

Please join us, for together our friendship will touch many more lives.

Whether you are downsizing or merely making room for the change of seasons, please consider partnering with us.

Every little bit helps us provide for families in need. With your help, we can make their dark days all the brighter.

On July 19-21 the St. Paul VI St. Vincent DePaul will be hosting a collection.

We are collecting:

Coats, hats, gloves, clothes, books, toys, household items, small appliances, and used computer equipment.

NO MONITORS OR LARGE APPLIANCES

It might have been sitting in your closet for the last two years, but together we can make it the best outfit for someone in need.

The donation trailer will be parked on 10th Ave, near Mater Christi Church (2401 S. 10th Ave, NR). We will have volunteers available to assist you and load the truck during the following times:

Friday, July 19; 6:30-8pm

Parish Announcements & Events

A Special Note of Thanks from our Pastoral Care Associate, Matt Brophy

On behalf of my family, I want to personally thank all of you for prayers and support for me and my sons Gabriel and Diego upon the unexpected loss of my beloved wife, Angeles. Our hearts are broken at the sudden loss of my wife and mother to my sons. We feel so supported by all your prayers, condolences, messages and presence at the wake or funeral mass. Her wake and funeral mass were a testimony to the community of believers who celebrated her life and the promise of eternal life that she received at baptism. Fr. Sergio Rivas who presided at her funeral mass spoke of the continued presence of our deceased family members who we still have a relationship with albeit very different. Secondly Fr. Rivas spoke about imitating the virtues of my wife, Angeles. My wife was a woman deeply committed to her faith, her church and to her family. Angeles loved her church and her service in Art and Environment in the worship space working alongside Abby and Tiffany and others. She loved her ministry in the Alpha program and assisting Maria and Elizabeth in Hispanic ministry. My sons and I will continue to be deeply committed to our faith in Jesus Christ by imitating her deep faith.

I want to thank Fr. Tom, Fr. Tim, Fr. Matt and the entire staff of St. Paul VI that supported me and my family in so many ways in the recent weeks. We sang her way into heaven just as she would have wanted it with the music provided by Nello Barone, Mary Prete, Jeanine Watylk, Michael and Wendy Silhavy, Kate Williams, Tony Velazco and our combined choir. Thank you to the priests' concelebrants and the hundreds of parishioners were present at her wake and funeral mass. Thank you to the parish staff for all their support in things like making the booklet, setting up the hall and the countless ways you supported my family.

I have often meditated on one prayer in the Roman Missal for the celebration of the funeral mass it reads "In him the hope of the blessed resurrection has dawned,.... Indeed for your faithful, Lord, life is changed and not ended and when this earthly dwelling turns to dust, an eternal dwelling is made ready for them in heaven." May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen

BAPTISM

Second and fourth Sundays at St. Mary, first and third Sundays at Mater Christi. To make arrangements or for more information call the Parish Office at 708-447-1020.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

This process begins with an interview with a Pastoral Staff member. No date for the ceremony can be reserved until this interview is completed. For more information, call the Parish Office at 708-447-1020.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

If you would like to receive an anointing, or you know someone who would like to receive this Sacrament, please call the parish office (708-447-1020) to schedule an appointment to arrange a visit.

FUNERAL PLANNING & ARRANGEMENTS

St. Paul VI Parish will assist you in preparing and customizing the Funeral Mass for your loved one. We are here to be of service to you during your time of sorrow.

Please contact the parish office at 708-447-1020 to make arrangements after you have contacted the funeral home.

There is a simple outline of choices you may use to personalize the Mass for you and your family. All of these are suggestions; you may choose any sacred music that is familiar or important to you.

Contact the parish office for assistance in any musical questions or special requests.

For a complete list of the Outline of Funeral Mass, please visit <https://www.stpaulviparish.org/funerals.html>

COUNSELING SERVICES

St. Paul VI offers counseling services to our parishioners. All issues are treated with respect and confidentiality.

Appointments are set at your convenience and are held at the Pastoral Center or other suitable location.

Clients are served on a sliding scale and whenever possible insurance reimbursement will be encouraged and supported.

Meet our parish counselor Damaris Colón-Soto. She is now available for confidential counseling in person at the Lyne Pastoral Center or St. Hugh Faith Formation Center from 9 am-4 pm. To schedule an appointment, please email damariscolon.claret@gmail.com or call 773-313-2492 (Se habla español). She will be available to meet in person at the Lyne Parish Office on Fridays.
